Marin General Hospital Faults Detailed In Report

By PHIL FRADKIN

The layout of departments at Marin General Hospital, in some cases, leaves much to be desired, while in other cases important elements are missing.

These findings are contained in a space utilization report submitted to the Marin Hospital District board last night by James A. Hamilton Associates of Minneapolis, Minn.

It is the second of two studies made by the firm for the hospital district. The first outlined hospital needs in Marin County through 1985.

A joint meeting of the board with dlirectors of the William Babcock Foundation and the medical staff is planned to go over the two reports.

The report says: "Marin General Hospital did not solve all its problems in the recent expansion program. Nor, apparently, did it develop any real plan for future orderly growth."

In 20 departmental services analyzed, the report states that 12,669 square feet of floor space is lacking to meet "desirable minimum requirements of 104,658 square feet."

Fourteen of the departments are short of space, while six have "more than enough space," the report states.

The firm found the open corridor waiting room for patients in the radiology department "grossly inadequate." There is no provision for separation of gowned female and male patients."

The department, described as "one of the least adequate" in the hospital, is boxed in and allows for no expansion.

The physical therapy room is called "a great disappointment for one just opened in new facilities." The department "needs over 50 per cent more space," the report declares.

"Even though the pediatric unit has just been enlarged, there are still areas which are either missing or inadequate. The missing elements are a head nurses' office, nurses' toilet, separate clean and soiled utility rooms, stretcher and wheel chair storage space, and a parents' lounge."

The department - by - department anaylsis in the report was prefaced by the comment: "This analysis may appear overly critical at times . . . our primary purpose is to try to point up the physical needs of the departments and of the hospital itself in order to give a better base for planning future expansions."

The proposed plan of development for 1970 lists two alternatives, based on whether San Rafael General Hospital builds a new 100-bed facility. Both recommendations call for the hospital to purchase property across Bon Air Road for a parking lot.

If San Rafael Hospital does rebuild, a minor expansion of 28 additional beds, estimated to cost $400,000, is recommended for Marin General Hospital. These beds would be housed in a three-story addition to the southwest side of the present hospital building.

The second alternative provides for 128 acute general care beds and 25 psychiatric beds at a cost of $5,250,000. This is suggested if San Rafael General Hospital does not build a new facility.

This addition would consist of a three-floor building in the shape of an offset cross, located at the northeast side of the present hospital.

Biggest Marin Political Turnout Greets Rocky

Kicks Off California Campaign

By WAT TAKESHITA

A milling crowd of 6,000 to 10,000, described as the largest political gathering in Marin history, stormed Peacock Gap Country Club in East San Rafael last night to see Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The Republican presidential hopeful and his bride, Margaretta (Happy) Rockefeller, shook some 2,000 hands for two solid hours before time ran out. Thousands more had to content themselves with getting a glimpse of the smiling couple and hearing Rockefeller's voice over loudspeakers.

MANY GIVE UP

Countless more gave up after waiting in cars jammed all the way from McNear's Point to Highway 101 south of San Rafael. (See also stories page 3).

"We are thrilled to be here and are frankly overwhelmed," the 55-year-old New York governor told the overflow crowd. He said he picked Marin County to launch his California campaign. "We just hope Marin will pick us."

RECEIVING LINE

In the receiving line with the "In my opinion," said Rockefeller, "the California primary will determine the outcome of the Republican National Convention in July."

FALL FROM TRUCK KILLS YOUTH, 16

Tragedy On San Geronimo-Nicasio Road Is First Marin Traffic Fatality Of Year

A 16-year-old Nicasio youth was killed yesterday when he fell off the rear of a flatbed truck being driven by his father on the San Geronimo-Nicasio road.

Todd Allyn Gadbois of Halleck Creek Road was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 2:27 p.m. The Marin County Coroner's office said head injuries caused the death.

The youth's death was the first traffic fatality in the county this year. There had been three by this date last year.

The youth's father, Ralph Allyn Gadbois, 49, a milker at the La Franchi Ranch in Nicasio, was driving the truck west on the San Geronimo-Nicasio road, two miles west of Nicasio, at 1:30 p.m.

His son was riding on the rear end of the truck, loaded

Incorporation Election Set For Tiburon

June 2 Date Has Problems, But Saves $500

The Tiburon incorporation election will be held June 2, consolidated with the state primary election.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss told Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday that consolidation will cause some problems because precinct boundaries will overlap the proposed city boundaries. But he said setting the election then would save about $500.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr made a plea for an election after July 1. He ran into strong opposition.

Under the law, as explained by County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, the county is obligated to continue to provide full county services to a new city during the fiscal year it is formed. But a city must be formed by Feb. 1 to collect property taxes the following fall. If the election were held after July 1, the county would be obligated to provide free police protection, road maintenance and planning services for the full 1964-65 fiscal year.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker pointed out that although the city would not collect property taxes next fall, it would receive other funds,

Judge Orders Redistricting Appearance

Marin Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. today ordered a representative of the board of supervisors to appear in court tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. to explain why supervisorial districts should not be reapportioned.

The order followed a lawsuit filed late yesterday demanding redistricting of the county's five supervisorial areas.

The judge's action prompted the board to call a special meeting this afternoon to discuss redistricting with County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

The suit was filed by two officers of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce, William A. Henderson Jr., president, of Larkspur and

Baget In Turnabout, Names DiGrazia Novato Police Chief

In an unexpected move last night, Novato City Administrator J. Julien Baget appointed Robert Di Grazia as police chief and the city council quickly ratified the appointment by unanimous vote.

The item was not on the agenda of the city council meeting, nor was it added by Baget with the other extra items before the meeting. As soon as the council approved the minutes of the previous meeting (at which Di Grazia failed to get the appointment), Baget made the appointment.

"We now have a full police force with the addition of three patrolmen who went to work today," Baget said.

This is the first time since the budget was approved last August that the police force has been up to its authorized strength.

The new patrolmen are Richard Courier of 1319 Leafwood Drive, Novato, Alfred Schroeder of Sonoma, and Louis Robinette of Petaluma.

The appointment ended behind-scenes struggles over choice of a police chief to replace Roy McLaren, who left last Nov. 1. The city had hired Griffenhagen - Kroeger of San Francisco to conduct an examination and submit five names. The five candidates were interviewed by Baget and members of the city council. Di Grazia, who failed to pass the examination, was later interviewed.

The council has held several closed meetings but failed to agree on an appointment. At a special meeting last Wednesday noon, Baget's choice was turned down by Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva and Councilmen Everett Pozzi and John J. Angeloni. At that time, Baget made no move to appoint Di Grazia.

Di Grazia, who has been home sick with the mumps for the past two weeks, said he was "happy with the appointment" and "glad it's over so now the police department can settle down to doing its job."

Dobbs Asks Open Hearing On His Possible Dismissal

County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs has asked for an open hearing tomorrow at 4 p.m. at the Civic Center on his possible dismissal.

Dobbs' request came after Supervisor William D. Fusselman yesterday suggested an open meeting. Fusselman said the actual motion by Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker two weeks ago asking for the special session did not specifically refer to Dobbs, but rather to the planning department.

In a discussion yesterday after the board meeting had been adjourned, Leydecker and Supervisor Peter H. Behr argued that a closed meeting would be for the protection of Dobbs. Leydecker said he felt any decision to open the meet-

JUST FRIENDLY LITTLE MISTAKE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Duane Wright went out to sit on his brick patio yesterday, it was gone.

He found it a few minutes later, stacked neatly in his garage.

A neighbor cleared up the mystery.

He said he was having a room added to his house. The contractor sent an apprentice to remove the patio.

Wrong house.

SMOKE BREAK ENDS

School Chief Blows Whistle On Weeds

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The "weed whistle" will sound no more at San Rafael High School.

Principal Alfred N. Thompson announced last night that, on his own initiative, he has closed the campus for seniors as well as underclassmen.

The new rule will go into effect with start of the second semester next week. It will, in effect, put an end to a "smoking break" for seniors.

Fifteen minutes before the end of lunch period each day, a bell rings to inform seniors that they are permitted to go off campus. This was supposed to be a high privilege accorded the members of the senior class, the only students at San Rafael High permitted to leave the campus during the school day without written permission.

There isn't, however, much of anywhere they can go. The Montecito Shopping Center

Cigarette Crackdown In Novato

The Novato City Council, by 3-to-2 vote, last night ordered the police department to start enforcing the state law banning sale of cigarettes to minors.

Councilman Robert D. Carrow made the motion, which carried over the "no" votes of Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva and Councilman John J. Angeloni.

"There are unsupervised cigarette machines where there is nothing to prevent 5 and 6-year olds from buying cigarettes," Carrow said.

Main offenders, he contended, are drive-ins and service stations where children congregate.

U.S. Attack On Smoking

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon General Luther L. Terry called today for a two-pronged attack on the hazards of cigarette smoking.

He told the House Agriculture Committee that, despite wide gaps in provable knowledge of smoking dangers, the Public Health Service will act through both education and research to back up findings of the federal panel that smoking, particularly of cigarettes, is a hazard to the nation's health.

Terry said the hazard findings "now constitute general policy" for the Public Health Service and that he personally endorses them.

Soviets: Destroy Bomber Fleets

GENEVA (AP) — U. S. officials have rejected a Soviet call for destruction of all the world's bomber fleets. But they were hopeful it signified a Russian interest in an American suggestion to keep obsolete bombers from smaller nations.

The bomber proposal was put forth at the Geneva disarmament conference yesterday by Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin. Chief U. S. disarmament negotiator William C. Foster said he would like to discuss it in detail.

The State Department in Washington said any move to destroy the bombers of all nations was neither acceptable or practical.

But it expressed hope Tsarapkin's proposal meant the Russians would look with favor on an informal suggestion Secretary of state Dean Rusk made to Soviet officials in Moscow last summer. Rusk suggested that big powers destroy nuclear bombers as they became obsolete lest they fall into the hands of non-nuclear nations.

Paris-Peking Two China Dispute Delights Chiang

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — As France and Communist China struggled with the touchy two-Chinas issue, Nationalist China waited quietly on the sidelines today. The feeling in Taipei was that President Chiang Kai-shek had outfoxed Mao Tze-tung.

Chiang's officials were elated at the dispute between Paris and Peking only a day after French President Charles de Gaulle's recognition of Communist China.

Red China's Foreign Ministry called on France yesterday to break off relations with the Nationalists. A French spokesman replied Paris would continue to recognize the Taipei government.

The French spokesman also denied the Paris-Peking agreement to exchange ambassadors included a French pledge to severe diplomatic ties with the Nationalists.

Nationalists officials saw the dispute as evidence of a miscalculation by Mao, Red China's Communist party chief. They said Mao apparently expected Chiang to cut off relations with France in angry reaction to deGaulle's recognition of Peking Monday.

4th Woman Is Attacked In East Bay

OAKLAND, (AP) — East Bay women are getting watchdogs and calling for police help in the wake of the area's fourth violent attack in a week.

Mrs. Deloris Joyce Davis, 42, was apparently a near-victim of a strangler yesterday but fended off the attacker.

Three women were not so fortunate earlier—they were killed.

Police as yet have no indication the cases are linked.

As the killer or killers remain uncaught, more than 500 women have telephoned city pounds and humane societies to obtain watchdogs.

Richmond, Berkeley, Piedmont and Oakland police all reported many more calls than usual asking for checks.

Mrs. Davis told police she awakened on a sofa in her living room and "suddenly felt hands around my throat . . . .

"I finally fought free but he hit me in the stomach. He grabbed me again and put a cloth around my neck . . . "I broke away again and screamed." The screams attracted her grown son and a boarder, and the assailant fled.

Mrs. Davis said the man was short, unshaven, about 35, oily haired and dressed in a brown zipper jacket and dark trousers.

Jury Still All-White In Trial Over Slaying Of NAACP Aide

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The jury in the Byron de La Beckwith murder trial remained all white and five men shy today.

In two days of tedious interrogations of prospective jurors, seven had been finally accepted. The 32 turned back included one of the seven Negros on the special venire.

Beckwith, a 43-year-old ex-Marine from Greenwood, was a little less dapper and showed signs of impatience as the legal wheels ground slowly through the preliminaries.

He is charged with lying in ambush to murder Medgar Evers, 37, state field secretary for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Evers was shot in the back with a high-powered rifle when he stepped out of his car at his home here last June 12 at midnight.

The first Negro called, J. E. Conic Jr., 55, was dismissed because his father was killed in a robbery ambush in 1948.

Conic, a small, neat man who operates a barber shop, said the fact that his father died in ambush would not affect his attitude as a juror in this case.

However, Judge Leon Hendrick agreed with the prosecution's contention that the rough parallel was sufficient cause for dismissal.

Another man was dismissed after he said he read some of Beckwith's vehement segregation letters to the editor, published in newspapers, and considered them "sort of extreme."

BEAUTY OF MARIN APPEALS TO ROCKY

New York Governor And Wife 'Oh' And 'Ah' Like Any Other Tourists On Ride

Marin is a lovely country—"like the ones you see in western movies," Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller commented during an unguarded moment on the bus ride from San Francsco to San Rafael yesterday afternoon.

What little respite he and his wife were able to grab during the heavy schedule was the ride into Peacock Gap Country Club via Santa Venetia.

Happy sipped ice water from a paper cup and got a cup of black coffee for her husband.

The bus made a quick swing to the Marin County Civic Center, where Marcelle McCoy of San Anselmo, manager of the Marin Art and Garden Fair, explained the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed structure.

Throughout the 30-minute ride, State Senate Minority Leader John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley took turns pointing out scenes of interest and serving as road guides.

On the winding drive from Santa Venetia toward China Camp, Rockefeller complimented the bus driver. "This is a workout for the driver, but he's good. I've never seen a bus come over a road like this." The bus cut off over a dirt road into Peacock Gap from the back way, thus avoiding a jam on the main road from San Rafael.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and his men, San Rafael police, and California Highway Patrolmen joined forces to direct traffic and parking.

The bus reached the country club on schedule, and the handshaking started.

Dimes March Total 'Under $10,000'

Early returns from the Mothers March of Dimes throughout Marin County last night totaled "under $10,000," Mrs. Walter F. Johnson, chairman of the Marin Chapter of the National Foundation-March of Dimes, reported today.

There is no goal, but the chapter hopes to surpass the $19,000 collected last year, Mrs. Johnson said.

Many areas have not yet reported in and many reported late, she said. "I'm sure it's going to go 'way up."

Many of the marchers started on their rounds a little late because of the reception for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller at Peacock Gap Country Club, Mrs. Johnson said.

Some marchers who attended Rockefeller's reception brought their returns in as late as 10:30 p.m., according to Mrs. John Musser of Novato, chairman of the march. The march was scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m.

"It will be at least a week before the total contributions will be known," Mrs. Johnson said.

Approximately 1,200 men and women participated in the march.

Board Changes, Then Approves Ranch Plan

Cluster housing on the 250-acre Marin Highlands development near Novato was approved yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors but with density which the developers declared was too low to be feasible.

Master plan for the development on the Pimentel Ranch had been bounced back to the planning commission once, but was returned to the board with unanimous approval of cluster housing atop four hills, and with density of seven houses per net flat acre.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said this would mean about 6,000-foot lots, the rest being hills.

Chairman William A. Gnoss boggled at that, noting that nearby developments have lots of an acre or larger.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said the aver-all density would be only two homes per acre. However, the board by 3-2 vote ruled that the number of houses per net flat acre be reduced from seven to six. Leydecker and Supervisor George H. Ludy voted against the restriction.

Principal Planner David Van Pelt said the requirement would eliminate 21 of about 450 homes.

Seitzinger Drive In Mill Valley To Be Studied

A driveway testing committee was suggested last night to the Mill Valley Planning Commission by Molly Citrin to test the driveway of Lloyd L. Seitzinger, owner of a controversial duplex at 20 Millwood Street.

The commission decided Naphtali Knox, a member of the city's architectural advisory committee who has specialized in traffic studies, be sent to study the circulation of the drive.

Miss Citrin, owns a duplex next door at 14 and 16 Millwood.

The planners approved six variances Jan. 15 for Seitzinger but denied one to permit "a minor projection on his roof overhang into the sdeyard setback on the north."

The commission required Seitzinger to cut his car spaces now four, to two; erect a screen across one garage space, and erect a bumper wall between his driveway and Miss Citrin's property.

Brown's Brother On Rehab Unit

Frank Marsall Brown of Greenbrae, 46, brother of Gov. Edmund G. Brown, is one of nine Californians named yesterday to the state Narcotics Rehabilitation Advisory Council.

Frank Brown of 40 Eliseo Drive has a law office in San Francisco. He handled narcotics prosecutions for many years while in the San Francisco district attorney's office. He was a member of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Crime.

A woman police sergeant, TV commentator Paul V. Coates, two doctors, a labor leader, and a newspaper publisher are among others named to the narcotics council.

Right wingman Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings is in his 18th National Hockey League season. He is 35 and has been the league's most valuable player six times.

Seven Hurt As Autos Hit During Rocky Reception

Seven Marin residents suffered minor injuries in a head-on collision near the Peacock Gap Country Club at the height of the Nelson Rockefeller reception last night.

San Rafael Police Officer P. D. Green said Mrs. Francis T. O'Mara, 55, of 79 Moncada Way, San Rafael, and four passengers were headed east on San Pedro Road at Peacock Drive, about 6:20 p.m. Mrs. O'Mara swerved to pass a stalled car, and her vehicle crashed head-in with a car driven by Virgil Austin Murphy, 62, of 208 Reed Boulevard, Mill Valley.

Injured were Murphy; his wife Kay, 61; Mrs. O'Mara, and passengers Mary Jean Knowles, 53, of 15 Cypress, Kentfield; Evelyn Kathleen Baan, 46, and Oscar Edward Baan, 50, of 15 Gordon Street, Sausalito, and Reese Tucker, 63, of Norwood Avenue, Ross.

Baan received stitches at San Rafael General Hospital for cuts on his face and head. His wife was examined and released. The others went to their own doctor, according to police.

The collision added to the conjestion on San Pedro Road, which was clogged all the way from McNear's Point, to San Rafael.

Razor Stolen

An electric razor was stolen from the First Church of Christ Scientist reading room at 1615 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, during the past week, Mrs. Marian B. Osborne, church secretary, reported to police yesterday.

Meter Theft Case Delayed

A young man and woman charged with stealing coins from San Rafael parking meters were given a week yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to find a lawyer and enter pleas.

Michael A. Nolan, 25, of Daly City, and Margaret J. Pearson, 24, of San Francisco were arrested yesterday by San Rafael police.

Despite objections by Nolan, Judge Harold J. Haley set bail for each of the couple at $2,750. Deputy Dist. Atty. Donald E. Paterson Jr. said Nolan and Miss Pearson are presently on bail from San Francisco for receiving stolen goods. They also are alleged to have a record of prior theft convictions in San Francisco.

Three Die As Russ Down A.F. Plane

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today one of its fighters downed a U. S. jet trainer over East Germany and the three officers aboard were killed.

The disclosure of the plane's fate came in a Soviet protest note released in Moscow accusing the United States of a provocative flight designed to increase tensions.

The plane vanished yesterday on a flight from this U. S. air base. Air Force officials said it apparently lost its way. The Russians had been asked for information.

The Soviet note said the plane appeared over Communist East Germany and ignored warning shots from a Soviet fighter directing it to land.

The note did not actually say the twin-jet T39 trainer was shot down. After saying the "intruder did not react to the conventional signals demanding it to land" or react to warning fire, the note added:

"Therefore the Soviet fighter had to take measures in compliance with air defense instructions which are well known to the American command.

Heaviest Satellite In World Orbited By U.S.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—The United States today fired the world's heaviest satellite into orbit around the earth with its powerful Saturn-1 rocket in a double-barreled triumph in the race to reach the moon before 1970.

A nationwide television audience watched as the 16-story Saturn-1, more powerful than six railroad diesel engines, thundered aloft at 11:25 a.m. EST.

Viewers could clearly see clouds and the Florida Peninsula as the rocket soared into space, flashed back to earth from a television camera aboard the 164-foot, 562-ton rocket.

Then came one of the spectacular sights of the space age—the separation of the first and second stages of the giant rocket. Ground viewers could see it perfectly.

After a fiery flight of 10 minutes, 32 seconds the 84-foot second stage—a "flying junkpile"composed of the burned out rocket casing and sand ballast—sped into orbit at 16,650 miles per hour.

SUIT

Donald L. Ronsheimer, vice president, of Marinwood.

As promised by them earlier, their petition asks the court to halt county elections until reapportionment is accomplished. Four county supervisor positions will be up for vote in the June 2 primary.

Four choices are proposed in the lawsuit, any one of which may be ordered by the court:

1. The supervisors could themselves put into effect revised district boundaries.

2. All four supervisors up for election could be elected at large.

3. The court could appoint three commissioners who would propose a redistricting plan for court approval.

4. The court could propose its own plan.

The junior chamber's suit is one of several similar suits filed in California counties to force redistricting.

The Mendocino County Board of Supervisors was ordered yesterday by a superior court judge to adopt a redistricting proposal. Judge Robert Winslow threatened to take other redistricting action if the Mendocino board does not obey his writ.

Boards of supervisors in Contra Costa and Santa Cruz counties redistricted yesterday. Contra Costa County was under threat of a court order.

A committee organized under state law to suggest a redistricting plan submitted its final recommendation to the Marin County Board of Supervisors Aug. 15, 1962, but Marin supervisors have taken no action since then.

DOBBS

A few minutes later Dobbs walked in to say he had decided to ask for an open meeting.

Dobbs added he felt the dispute was not over personalities but rather about the philosophy of how the department should be run. He said he therefore felt it was the county's business as a whole.

Leydecker said he has previously said he was dissatisfied with Dobbs' administrative abilities. He said he would make specific charges.

Greenbrae Boy, 13, Hit By Car

Patrick Thomas Ryan, 13, of 76 Via Barranca, Greenbrae, was treated for a broken thumb and multiple cuts yesterday after he was hit by a car at Eliseo Drive and Bretano Way, Greenbrae, at 7:30 a.m.

Russell Burgess Honeyman, 20, of Walnut Creek, was driving south on Eliseo Drive when Patrick ran into the path of his car, according to the California Highway Patrol.

ROCKY

Rockefellers were State Sen. and Mrs. John F. McCarthy, Assemblyman and Mrs. William T. Bagley, and Lee Sherry of Fairfax, who resigned as Republican State Central Committee vice chairman to campaign for Rockefeller.

Senator McCarthy and Assemblyman Bagley described the turnout as the "largest crowd ever in Marin County for any political gathering."

"We are grateful to the people of Marin County for the tremendous response," said McCarthy and Bagley in a joint statement. "We predict that the public response shown in Marin will be equalled throughout the state in the months to come."

Republicans and Democrats squeezed by shoulder to shoulder for a personal appraisal of the Rockefellers.

Mrs. Rockefeller, expecting their child this summer, sat on a high chair shaking hands, smiling, nodding, and exchanging greetings.

Most said "how nice to meet you," and "good luck." Many gave her a quick once-over as they greeted her. One woman, obviously expecting, opened her overcoat just enough to let Happy know, then winked meaningfully and squeezed her hand.

Children made a hit with the Rockefellers. One of the first to greet them was Guy Perry, 9, of 205 San Marino Drive, San Rafael.

"My mother is the best golfer at Peacock Gap," Guy proclaimed.

"That's fine," said Rocky, walking side by side with Guy. "Will you tell your mother that I'll be running for office in the primaries."

Rockefeller declined to speculate on whether he would pick Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel as his running mate if nominated as the Republican standard bearer. "I have the highest esteem for Senator Kuchel, but I don't think he or I can focus on that point as yet," he said.

The Rockefellers flew into San Francisco International Airport yesterday morning. Among the greeters there were Mrs. Sherry and Gerald E. Misner, chairman of the Marin Committee.

After the San Rafael reception, the Rockefellers took a train from San Francisco to Los Angeles, where he will speak at a major fund raising event.

Stumping in Los Angeles today, Rockefeller again challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona to meet him face-to-face debate on Republican issues. He said the Arizona senator should disassociate himself with positions taken by the "radical right."

Rockefeller criticized Goldwater for accusing President Johnson of attempting to buy votes on his budget. He said he thought that statement "a little rough in terms of the amount of time which the president has had in office."

He offered complaints of his own against the Johnson administration. "I feel that the president has promised a great deal, and with the budget that he has recommended, it's going to be extremely difficult for him to deliver on his promises."

Boards Sign Marin-Sonoma Water Pacts

The Marin-Sonoma water agreements were signed in brief ceremonies last evening at the North Marin County Water District office in Novato.

The two preliminary agreements cover development of Russian River water and construction of the Sonoma-Marin aqueduct.

"Everyone was in general agreement that they would lead toward an ample long-range supply of water for Marin County," said Jerome B. Gilbert, North Marin Water District manager.

E. J. Guidotti, president of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District boards; William Marcus, president of the board of Marin Municipal Water District, and Arnold Heise, president of the North Marin District board, signed for their districts.

Also signing the agreement were Gordon Miller, chief engineer of the Sonoma County district; B. J. Brusatori, secretary of the Marin District, and Beryl R. Morrow, secretary of the North Marin District.

with furniture. The family was moving from Nicasio to a new home in Petaluma.

The father, according to the California Highway Patrol, heard a couch fall off the rear of the truck. He looked back and saw his son lying motionless in the roadway.

The load of furniture was not tied down. Apparently the youth fell or was pushed by the falling couch off the truck, according to the highway patrol.

Young Gadbois left Tamalpais High School at the end of his junior year last June. He worked at odd jobs for the Marin County Fire Department during the summer.

A native of Connecticut, he had lived in Marin County for five years.

Funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Burial will be in Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

The youth is survived by his father, his mother, Mildred, and two sister and two brothers, Katherine, Judith, Thomas and William.

mainly state grants. Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said these would probably amount to about $55,000.

Mitchell said the bulk of these would be subtracted from county revenue.

On the motion of Behr, the board then voted unanimously indicating its intention to offer county services to the new city under contract during its first year, of incorporation is approved.

In the resolution setting the election date, an official population estimate of 4,704 persons was included. The estimate was supplied by the planning department.

Marin Civic Luncheon Reservations Closed

Reservations for luncheon at the all-day conference Saturday on Marin and Its Future have been closed, Margaret Azevedo, chairman of the event, announced today.

She reported that 350 have made reservations and that is all there will be room for. The conference begins at 9:30 a.m. at Dominican College, San Rafael. There is still planty of room in this lecture hall, Mrs. Azevedo said.

San Anselmo Traffic Light Reforms Ordered

San Anselmo's high overhead traffic lights may all be replaced by standard lights on poles because of an injury accident Jan. 10 at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Barber Avenue.

Residents turned out in large numbers at last night's San Anselmo City Council meeting to back a demand by Freeman W. Andrews of 30 Prospect Avenue, on behalf of Barber Tract petitioners, that the city replace the light and provide police protection at the dangerous intersection.

They got all they asked—and more.

Herbert Berryessa of 124 Prospect Avenue, whose 8-year-old daughter Regina was hit by a car in the intersection on Jan. 10, joined in urging replacement of the hard-to-see overhead signal light as most important. Berryessa, who is an engineer with the State Division of Highways, said surplus signal heads might be obtainable from the state for as little as $10 apiece.

(Regina, recovered from her injuries, returned to school this week.)

City Administrator Douglas Flautt said proper lights at the four corners of the intersection would cost about $6,000 installed. He said there is ample gasoline tax money to pay for them.

The council voted unanimously to have the lights installed. But that was not enough for Mayor Arthur W. Smith.

The mayor urged that police protection be provided at the intersection during the hours children are crossing to and from St. Anselm's and Wade Thomas schools.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said this would require adding an officer.

Andrews suggested that "in several cities, senior citizens have been deputized" for crossing guard duty. Councilman Woodrow Capurro's suggestion that a retired person be found for guard was approved unanimously, and the council authorized emergency expenditure for the guard on a temporary basis.

But even that was not enough.

Councilman Cedric Clute pointed out that the Hub City has hard-to-see overhead signal lights also at Sequoia, Butterfield Road, Broadmoor and San Francisco Boulevard intersections with Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Mayor Smith then directed Flautt to find the cost of replacing all of them with standard signals on uprights.

Meanwhile, still another overhead light is already scheduled for replacement— that at Drake Boulevard and Bank Street, which will be replaced in connection with the first stage of widening of the boulevard, scheduled to go to bid within 60 days.

SMOKING

across Third Street from the campus is "off limits" by request of the Montecito Merchants Assn. Home owners along Mission Avenue don't want the student "hanging around."

One exit route is open: Fourth Street. But 15 minutes is not long enough to walk downtown and return, and cars are not permitted to leave during the "break."

So the "senior privilege bell" has become the "smoking bell"—or more commonly, the "weed whistle." When it sounds, senior boys walk across Union Street so they are off the campus, and out come the cigarettes.

It's not impossible, of course, for some underclassmen to join the "weed parade."

The "weed whistle" is only one of the odd customs connected with smoking at Marin high schools — a vice which education programs on the dangers of cigarettes by the Marin Medical Society and the shocking government report this month have both failed to dent appreciably.

Girls at San Rafael High (even senior girls) do not join the "weed whistle parade." They smoke in the girls' rest rooms. Although faculty men patrol the boys' rest room to some extent against student smoking, the girls' rest rooms are inviolate, according to girls at the school. (The faculty, of course, have their own rest rooms.)

Smoking in rest rooms is the usual practice for girls in Marin high schools, it seems.

At Terra Linda, Redwood and Novato highs, girl students reported much smoking in the rest rooms. "Almost anyone approaching the lavatories can easily tell they are smoking places," wrote Jennie Lyons of Ross, a Redwood student, in the student newspaper, Redwood Bark.

Boys at Redwood have no such convenient location as the "smoking area" across Union Street from San Rafael's campus. But they find places.

"Out by the shops, behind the Little Theater, beyond the CEA, in the Little Theater, and in the gym locker rooms are sneak places to smoke," wrote Miss Lyons in the Redwood Bark.

At Tamalpais High, the Canteen, across the street from the campus, is the time-honored smoking place. Both boys and girls smoke there.

At Sir Francis Drake High, it has long been the practice for boys to smoke in their cars on campus. Following publication of the government report, Principal Harold Allison at Drake decided to crack down. He posted notices that no longer would the school administration overlook smoking in cars in the school parking lot. Disciplinary action was promised those caught hereafter.

All of Marin's public high schools have rules against smoking by students on campus. Suspension—for periods from three days upward—is the penalty for violating the rules. But all principals admit that many high school students smoke.

Despite "athletic codes" which call for school athletes to follow training rules that forbid smoking, even the stars of football field and basketball court sometimes indulge in "the weed."

"Many of the star athletes at Redwood indulge occasionally or regularly," wrote Miss Lyons, although Principal Harold Kreps said "no athlete has ever been caught smoking while participating in a sport."

Why do the high school students smoke, despite education in the dangers and rules against campus smoking?

The students themselves offer various explanations and excuses. But Principal Kreps at Redwood has what seems the obvious answer.

"The social pressure to smoke seems to outweigh the disadvantages," he says.

Big Sendoff For Juanita In Sausalito

More than 400 well-wishers gave Juanita Musson of Sausalito a sendoff for Sonoma County last night at Rico's restaurant at 1219 Bridgeway.

Miss Musson, longtime operator of Juanita's Galley, will leave Friday for El Verano, where she plans to open a restaurant on ranch property owned by Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford). It will be called, of course, "Juanita's Galley."

The restaurateur came to Sausalito in 1946 and during her sojourn had three galleys, two in Marinship and the third aboard the ferry boat Charles Van Damme at Waldo Point.

Richard Blacow, owner of Rico's, said Arthur Godfrey was among notables attending the farewell party.

Marin Fog Lifts; Planes In Air

Fog which had restricted flying in Marin County Monday and yesterday, lifted slightly today allowing flights at the Marin County Airport and at Hamilton Air Force aBse.

In some areas of Marin, however, the fog still hugged the ground this morning. It almost rained in West Marin as a wet drizzle dampened streets.

In Southern Marin the fog was much higher than yesterday and helicopter flights, restricted at the Commodore Helicopter Inc. site north of Sausalito yesterday, were unrestricted today.

WAYNE DONALD BOONE
New vice principal

San Rafael High Gets No. 2 Man

The San Rafael Board of Education, after months of screening and interviewing, last night hired a vice principal for San Rafael High School, but he will not be available until July 1.

Wayne Donald Doone, 37, of the Oakland Unified School District, will take over at the beginning of next fiscal year at a salary of $11,535. He will fill the post that has become vacant since last August when Gary Dunn resigned.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said 55 applicants were screened for the job.

The board originally asked for applications from district employees only, but later asked for applications from outside the district. This action brought protest from E. B. Gearhart, head of business education at San Rafael High School, who withdrew his application and charged the board with damaging relations with its personnel.

Boone was hired after a final closed session that lasted a half-hour at the start of last night's board meeting.

A native of Durant, Okla., he holds a bachelor's degree in business education from Southwestern State College, Okla., a master's degree in education from Midwestern University, Tex., and is working toward a doctorate in education at University of California.

For his master's thesis, Boone chose the topic, "Factors Related to a Successful Public Relations Program."

He holds a high school administrative credential in California. He taught music for four years in Texas and Oklahoma high schools and has been in the Oakland district for eight years, first as a mathematics and music teacher and now as a curriculum assistant.

He is married and has two children. He served in the Navy from 1943 to 1946.

Not Candidate For Re-election

Robert J. Busher, Novato Fire District commissioner, today announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election when his term expires in April.

Busher, who lives at 1757 Indian Valley Road, said he ran for the board when Novato was newly incorporated and there was some talk of the city taking over the district. He said he wanted residents of the district outside the city to have some representation on the fire board.

"That is not necessary now, so I will not run," he said.

Novato High Dance

The Novato High School associated student body will sponsor an "end of finals" dance in the cafeteria from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Natives of Basutoland, in times of trouble, smear on their bodies a mixture of boiled human flesh, blood, fat and herbs. To be really potent, the flesh must be stripped from a living victim.

SECOND FASTEST SELLING IMPORT

The MG sedan, introduced in this country about a year ago, is said to rank second in recent Northern California imported car sales. A product of British Motor Corp., the car features front-wheel drive and a four-cylinder (transverse-mounted) developing 55 horsepower. It is handled in San Rafael by E. F. Sweeney British Cars. Eugene Sweeney is posed here with a two-door sport sedan.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Sauna Bath, Club Office To Open; Alcan To Be At Old Sabella's

A new enterprise expected to open at 553 Redwood Highway (in the Sabella Building), Mill Valley, in about three weeks is a branch of the Viking Sauna Corp. of San Francisco. This will be both a sales office for territory north of the Golden Gate Bridge and club quarters for a large sauna bath, relaxing, massaging and locker rooms—all under the management of Monte Schaulis of Larkspur.

Now headquartered at the San Francisco sales office, Schaulis says the club is intended primarily for men, but probably one day a week will be set aside for ladies. Tentative hourly schedule is from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. six days a week.

JUST A LITTLE farther north, it appears that Alcan-Marin Ltd. will get started on construction of its big apartment and marine project next month. Alcan-Marin offices are located in the building that used to be Sabella's restaurant before the latter moved to the north end of the Richardson Bridge.

CHARLES A. MANNING has sold his business known as Manning Lumber and Hardware, 4224 Redwood Highway, opposite Terra Linda, and is talking about opening a small collection agency in the area.

New owner Daniel J. Gallagher of 122 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, is keeping the same name posted for the time being because of its familiarity to customers but may change later to Gallagher Lumber and Hardware. He was previously two years with Air Filter Sales in San Francisco and 12 years with O'Day Equipment, Inc., in North Dakota.

NECCHI-ELNA OF MARIN that recently moved into larger quarters at 1533 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has changed its name to go along with its expanded services and lines. It's now known as Automatic Sewing Machine and Vacuum Center.

AFTER 12 YEARS as president of the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce for the Pacific Coast, Inc., J. W. M. Schorer of Sleepy Hollow has given up his gavel. He was recently presented with a memorial gift by the board and members in appreciation of his years of service.

Schorer is general manager of the Holland America Line for the Pacific Coast. He has turned his chamber duties over to new president Lester L. Goodman, chairman of Getz Brothers.

TWO TRUST OFFICERS—R. M. Clark and P. J. Sternda in Bank of America's San Rafael district trust office attended the firm's annual trust meeting at Monterey early this week.

MOTORCRAFT. If it goes on land, water or in the air, apparently you can now lease it from Doug Dicker, San Rafael Chrysler and Plymouth dealer. He's formed a new corporation (Doug Dicker Leasing Corp.) which will lease cars, trucks, boats or airplanes . . . Chrysler Corp., by the way, was to select a Bay Area driver today in the Hillsdale Shopping Center, San Mateo, to test drive its new turbine car for three months. When he's through with it someone else well get the chance . . . Latest study by the California Highway Patrol shows that reflective license plates are more visible and legible under reflected light at night. This year, 16 states and the District of Columbia will be issuing them as a safety measure.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Uncle Sam Gets Share Of Prizes Won In Any Contest

By P. J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Prizes won in any contest, drawing, television or radio quiz program, door prizes, etc., and awards and bonuses received by employees for achievements in their work or for suggestions are taxable. Prizes and awards in goods or services are taxed at their fair market value. If you refuse to accept a prize it is not taxed.

P. J. Wikel

Proceeds of lottery or sweepstakes tickets are gambling winnings over the cost of the ticket. If you receive the ticket as a gift before it won, the winnings in excess of the value of the gift are taxed. The selling price of the ticket is usually the value of the gift.

Bonds, automobiles, and other prizes are taxed at their fair market value.

Your total gambling winnings must be included in income. You can deduct your gambling losses only to the extent of your winnings, provided you itemize your deductions.

If you use the standard deduction or tax table you lose the deduction.

Pulitzer, Nobel and other prizes given in recognition of past accomplishments in religious, charitable, scientific, educational, artistic, literary, or civic fields are not taxed if the recipient is selected without action on his part and is not expected to render any future services. Such awards do not become taxable merely because the recipient files a written form or appears for a personal interview.

A scholarship is not generally taxable as income to the recipient, even though awarded as a contest prize.

Western Small Business Votes Stock Dividend

The board of directors of Western Small Business Investment Co. on Jan. 27 voted the firm's first stock dividend.

Harold L. Moose Jr. of Kentfield, executive vice president, announced that stockholders of record on Feb. 15 will receive one new share for each seven shares now held. The dividend marks the third consecutive year there has been a distribution from accumulated surplus. In 1962, portfolio securities were distributed with a current market value approximating 21 per cent of invested capital. In 1963, a rights offering on appreciated securities realized a 30 percent yield for Western stockholders.

Western's San Rafael offices are at 1005 A Street. Other offices are in San Francisco, Modesto and Los Angeles.

Market Panicked By Slaying, Funston Says

BOSTON (AP)—G. Keith Funston, president of the New York Stock Exchange, says panic on the market was greater in the first minutes after President John F. Kennedy was assassinated than in the 1929 crash.

Funston, speaking to the board of governors of the Association of Stock Exchange Firms in Boston, said stock specialists did a "magnificent job" in closing the market ahead of schedule. Stock specialists are traders assigned to keep certain stocks stable.

Airport Expansion Study Voted

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A firm with New York and Denver connections has been authorized by the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission to draw up a plan for industrial expansion around the San Francisco International Airport.

The firm, Pacific Air Commerce Center Inc., headquartered in San Francisco, expects to spend around $300,000 preparing the plan which, it was emphasized, the commission need not accept if it doesn't like it.

The commisison by a 4-1 vote authorized the company yesterday to go ahead.

The plan would be aimed at developing a commercial complex on fill ground adjoining the airport, in conjunction with the city's extension of airport runways to handle supersonic planes.

TWA Asks Nonstop Service To Detroit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Trans World Airlines asked the Civil Aeronautics Board yesterday for immediate authority to provide nonstop service between Detroit and California.

TWA asked for the right to originate or terminate at Detroit nonstop flights serving Los Angeles and San Francisco until 60 days after a final CAB ruling in the pending Detroit-California nonstop service investigation.

Market Closes Lower, During Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was substantially lower at the close today as profits were taken on a sustained day-to-day rise. Trading was active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.8 million shares compared with 4.73 million yesterday.

Standard Oil New Jersey, even though it reported profits in the billion-dollar class for the first time, slipped fractionally.

Brokers saw the decline as long-delayed profit taking on a market that has been rising stubbornly to new peaks in the averages.

IBM fell 7, Xerex 3, Polaroid more than a point.

American Smelting, encouraged by its 2-for-1 stocks split, was one blue chip opposing the downtrend.

U. S. Smelting rose more than 2 and Control Data more than a point.

Cigarette stocks also bucked the selling movement.

Youngstown Sheet clung to a fractional gain because of its 3-for-1 stock split. Jones & Laughlin was off about a point.

Airlines were down sharply, Pan-American losing about 2, American and United about a point each.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

U. S. government bonds continued generally unchanged in light trading. Corporates were slightly lower.

All-Time Record

SAN FRANCISCO—Sales of Johns-Manville Corp. set an all-time record in 1963, and dollar earnings were the second highest in the company's history, according to audited figures announced in New York. Sales in 1963 were $414,881,000 compared with $392,345,000 in 1962, the previous record year.

Hub Council Votes For Downtown Use Study

The San Anselmo Planning Commission will undertake a study of downtown land uses in expectation of a burst of commercial building if the downtown parking assessment district is created.

The study was ordered last night by the San Anselmo City Council, on recommendation of City Administrator Douglas Flautt.

The city administrator said he expects parking district proponents to be successful in forming the district, and predicted it will "cause more activity in property in the downtown area."

"Maybe there needs to be a complete updating of the land use map for the zoning ordinance," he suggested.

Planning commission chairman Ronald R. Hill, who was present, agreed.

The council heard a complaint by Mrs. Leonard Gerson of 32 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about storage of trucks in the city parking lot on the former Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way near Bolinas Avenue. But councilmen turned the complaint over to Flautt and Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani for more study.

Mrs. Gerson, in a letter, objected to a bus that "explodes into a grounded jet about 6:15 a.m. including Sunday," and to a half-dozen trucks belonging to Beacon Tree Service of San Rafael that, she wrote, "remain there around the clock, unless in use."

Chief Buchignani said no restrictions are placed on the lot, which is used principally for all-day parking by commuters. He admitted some vehicles are stored there indefinitely.

The San Anselmo City Council also:

1. Informed Thomas Ellick of 14 Oak Springs Drive that a damage problem behind his and neighboring homes is not the city's responsibility, but directed Flautt to check on whether the subdivider complied with city requirements at the time the tract was annexed to San Anselmo.

2. Voted to amend the zoning ordinance to permit a two-foot overhang into the five-foot side yard setback, instead of only one foot. The change was requested by builder R. E. Nolan, and concurred in by Flautt and the planning commission.

3. Directed Flautt to increase the city's personal injury liability insurance from a limit of $300,000 to a limit of one million dollars, while increasing the amount deductible on vehicle collision insurance from $100 to $250. The change was recommended by Russell W. Thomas of Minto and Wilkie, the city's insurance agents, and by Flautt. Additional cost to the city will be $122.50 per year.

4. Directed Flautt to investigate placing the city's false arrest insurance with another firm. City Atty. John B. Buresh said the State Peace Officers Assn., which now provides the insurance, had refused to hire counsel to defend two officers named in a false arrest suit.

5. Agreed to accept the first 324 feet of Kenrick Drive into the city street system, as recommended by City Engineer Richard A. Sypher.

6. Introduced ordinances to annex Pasadena Avenue to the city, to rezone a lot owned by Anna M. Ghezzi on Tunstead Avenue from duplex to commercial, and to rezone a lot owned by Robert Hood on Cedar Street from single family home to duplex.

7. Agreed to incorporate the San Anselmo School District bond election with the city election on April 14. City Clerk Anita M. Gannon read the notice of election, setting forth that two city councilmen, city clerk and treasurer are to be elected.

8. Prostponed action on disability retirement of Rocco Joseph Duranto, street department maintenance man, until Flautt checks on whether he will be eligible for social security disability payments in addition to about $100 a month city pension. Duranto, a city employee since 1947, has suffered loss of eyesight which prevents his doing his job, Flautt said. He would be eligible for retirement age in two more years.

9. Adopted a confusing street name change resolution which creates Broadmoor Court on a westerly extension of Broadmoor Avenue, changes Ivy Lane and part of Hoag Avenue to Scenic Avenue, and part of Scenic Avenue to Ivy Lane.

10. Approved the final map of Cole Jackman's three-lot Jackman Oaks subdivision on Laurel Avenue by 4-1 vote, with Councilman John M. Reichmuth dissenting because of insufficient water supply and substandard street.

11. Turned down 3-to-2 a request by the parks and recreation commission that Commissioner Paul Brann be sent to a state recreation conference in Anaheim, at cost of $125. Councilman William Franchini said he thought the department could get more for its money with visits to similar departments and attendance at conferences in the Bay Area. Councilmen Reichmuth and Woodrow Capurro agreed, with Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Councilman Cedric Clute supporting the request.

12. Bannde parking on the north side of Jordan Avenue for 66 feet from the intersection with Forbes Avenue, on recommendation of Police Chief Buchignani.

YMCA Youth Seminar Set For Japan

Fourteen Bay Area teen-agers who will go on the fourth YMCA Youth Seminar to Japan July 19 to Aug. 31 are to be selected Tuesday.

More than enough persons have signed up for the event for seven boys and seven girls but more applications for boys will be taken from those who wish to sign up as possible replacements, said program associate Dale Greenlee at the Marin Y office at 1009 Irwin Street, San Rafael.

The group will spend a three-day orientation period in Hawaii en route to Japan. The YMCA of Osaka and the families of its youngsters will serve as hosts as the Marin Y families did last summer for a group of Japanese boys, said Greenlee.

There will be a 10-day international caravan, during which the 14 teen-agers from Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo counties will cooperate with Japanese teen-agers on service projects in rural villages.

The seminar will take the visitors through most major Japanese cities and on visits to numerous shrines and places of scenic interest in the islands of Honshu and Kyushu.

Mill Valley Rec Project Gets Approval

Mill Valley parks and recreation commission Monday night accepted the preliminary plan by John D. Erickson, city planning consultant, for the city recreational area, Project 17.

Only changes proposed were redoing two of the four tennis courts. The commission asked Erickson to resubmit the plan after making that change.

Richard Phenix, coordinator of Marin Council of Community Services, urged the commission to see that the senior citizens center be in the same community and not in a far-away building. Erickson agreed with this.

Commissioner Joseph C. Brewster said the Southern Marin Horsemen's Assn. plans to rebuild and enlarge its horse ring and perhaps alter the location slightly to make room for the tennis courts.

Erickson offered to donate 50 hours of his time to Project 17 if an architect and landscape architect would donate like time.

Fees for summer recreation program participants, raised last year, should be lowered this year, the commission agreed. Last year's hike caused a drop in participants, said Steve Buffo, recreation director.

U.S., Red China Talks On Again

WARSAW (UPI) — Ambassadors of the United States and Communist China today resumed talks which constitute the only direct diplomatic contact between the two countries.

John M. Cabot, U.S. ambassador to Poland, and Wang Ping-nan, Communist Chinese ambassador, met in a secluded Polish government villa near the Soviet embassy in Warsaw. The building was guarded by security police armed with machine guns.

Today's meeting was the 119th in the series of diplomatic talks that started in 1954.

Completes Course

Pvt. Thomas H. Jervis, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Jervis, 103 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, has completed an 11-week artillery tracked vehicle maintenance course at the Army Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla.

Two Ecuadorian Educators Study One-Room Schools

Two Ecuadorian educators, who visited one-room schools of Marin County yesterday, termed the systems of teaching about equal to their own country's methods, but said buildings and libraries are far better.

The men, Jorge Delgado Galarza, professor of secondary education at National College in Guayaquil, and Guillermo A. Celi Romero, supervisor for the ministry of education at El Ora, visited Marshall School at Marshell and Lincoln School on Hicks Valley Road.

They said they will take back to their own systems the knowledge of how much aid county departments of education in California render to individual schools. They said their one-day jaunt through Marin was devoted to one-room schools because many such schools exist in Ecuador.

The men will return to Marin to study Bayview School at San Quentin Prison later.

On seven-month UNESCO fellowships to study schools, the pair said California will be the only state of their research. It was chosen, they said, because it considered to offer the top educational methods in the U.S.

The men, who speak little English and are traveling with a translator, arrived in Marin following a tour of San Francisco schools. They left today for Sacramento, where they hoped to meet Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

PUC Head Hits Merger Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The president of the California Public Utilities Commission said yesterday he has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to set aside the merger of two major suppliers of natural gas to California.

William M. Bennett, of Kentfield, said merger of El Paso Natural Gas Co., and Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp. creates monopoly power for the company.

Bennett acted as special counsel of the State of California in a suit by the Department of Justice against the gas companies.

He said, "El Paso overwhelmingly dominates the natural gas markets of the West and plans similar domination in the future."

Supervisors Support Raise In Pollution Area Tax Rate

The bay area air pollution control district has squeezed all the blood it can out of the present tax rate, and is still not doing the job it should in enforcing smog controls, the district's chief administrative officer, D. J. Callaghan, said yesterday.

Appearing before the Marin County Board of Supervisors, Callaghan said the present one cent tax limit per $100 assessed valuation has caused to district to curtail many functions.

More enforcement personnel are needed, he said, and pay raises are long overdue. He asked support in urging the state legislature to allow the district to increase its tax rate to 1.5 cents.

The board endorsed the proposal and voted to ask the governor to place the issue on special call at this year's budget session of the legislature.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Formally approved leases and agreements to establish a county heliport at Richardson Bay, and authorized public works director Donald R. Frost to start work.

2. Requested action by the state legislature to allow an exchange of land between the county and International Investment Co. along Gallinas Creek for future dredging operations.

3. Turned down a proposed trip to a conference in Anaheim by park director Kelvin J. Nelson because the parks budget for trips was not large enough to cover it. Several other trips were approved.

4. Adopted an ordinance setting 25 mile an hour zones on portions of Almonte and Homestead boulevards and 35-mile zones on parts of Miller Avenue, Almonte Boulevard and Tennessee Valley Road.

5. Approved a use permit for Harry Johnson for a Sauna Bath Club near Sobella's Restaurant on Highway 101.

6. Approved a use permit for a 107-unit development of apartments and townhouses in Marin City.

7. Approved a changed tentative map for subdivision of Wildhorse Valley, near Novato, by Harry Heifetz.

8. Approved annexation of three new units of Kent Woodlands to the Kentfield Fire District.

9. Approved formation of flood control zone 8, on the Tiburon peninsula south of Red Rock Hill.

10. Held over until next week, because of lack of time, several items, including a proposed statement on the grand jury report, an appointment to the redevelopment agency, discussion of financing reconstruction of Mar West Street in Tiburon, changes in powers of the county board of education, and a request for funds to pay for printing of picture postcards of the civic center.

11. Appointed Harold Jay Nelson as junior accountant for the auditor-controller, Shirley May Sheeley as intermediate typist clerk for the county clerk, and Gwendolyn Martin as senior housekeeper at juvenile hall.

Little Lake School District Cleared

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The California Teachers Assn. has taken the Little Lake School District off its blacklist.

The district in the Santa Fe Springs area of eastern Los Angeles County had been cited by the CTA in May, 1962, for "improper practices."

The state teacher organization urged teachers to boycott jobs in the district.

At a news conference yesterday, Dr. Arthur F. Corey, CTA executive secretary, said personnel practices had been improved in the district by a new school board.

Mill Valley Council To Start Question Period

Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks announced today inauguration of a question and answer period before each Mill Valley city council meeting. The first one will be Monday from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

"Interested citizens will have an opportunity to learn more about their local government," he said, "and to express personal viewpoints on general issues . . .

"In a town as closely knit as Mill Valley, there is absolutely no reason for a breakdown in communication between the people and their elected representatives.

"All councilmen have listed telephone numbers. Council agendas are distributed in advance by the Mill Valley Record. Council sessions are open to the public, and council proceedings are thoroughly covered in the newspapers.

"However, if people feel a need for still more communication between themselves and the city government, we will be glad to devote this extra time to the problem and will continue the sessions on a regular basis as long as enough interest is shown."

Sheeks said the council hopes the people will use the time to help their councilmen explore more effective ways to attain common objectives.

'Rocky,' 'Goldwater' Buttons Mingle At Meeting Of GOP

"Rockefeller" and "Goldwater" buttons mingled last night at a meeting of the Marin County Central Committee in the county courthouse.

Chairman Gerald E. Misner called for various committee chairmen for progress reports.

Paul Haerle, editor of the GOP newsletter, announced that the first issue of "Trumpetings" will come out in mid-February.

A testimonial dinner for State Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley will be held on Feb. 28 at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael, Cal Horn, ticket sales chairman, announced he expects 500.

Layton Hatch reminded all Republicans that candidates for the central committee must file with the county clerk between Feb. 24 and March 20.

Mrs. J. Lee Chaille presented a report on the "Civil Rights Record of Political Parties." She said that historically, Republicans and not Democrats have been champions of civil rights.

Future meetings of the Marin Republican Central Committee will be dinner meetings, chairman Misner announced. Regular meetings are the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Man Sentenced In 'Too Long' Tryout

L. C. Brown, 26-year-old Vallejo laborer, was sentenced in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to 15 days in county jail for "trying out" a used car on sale a little too long.

San Rafael police arrested Brown Jan. 16 for taking a car from the lot of Doug Dicker Chrysler-Plymouth at 535 Francisco Boulevard. An original charge of embezzlement was reduced to driving a car without the owner's permission.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Donald E. Paterson Jr. said Brown "apparently took a 'five-day free trial' sign quite literally and kept the car without telling the salesman." Judge Harold J. Haley credited Brown's sentence with five days for part of time already served.

Not Eyeing Race, Kennedy Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says he is not thinking about running for vice president now, only about doing a good job as attorney general.

Kennedy, just returned from a trouble-shooting mission to Southeast Asia, was asked at a White House news conference yesterday to comment on the action of the Erie County, N.Y. Democratic Assn. in endorsing him for vice president.

"I'm not interested in any of those matters at this time," he said. "I have decided only that I am going to be attorney general and not look beyond that."

Eight San Rafael High Portable Classrooms Voted

Added Space Is Needed During Construction, Declares Thomson

The San Rafael Board of Education last night decided to acquire, through lease or purchase, eight portable classrooms to help take care of space needs at San Rafael High School during next year's reconstruction program.

Principal Alfred N. Thomson told the board that 10 classrooms will be torn down in the construction program and four other classrooms adjacent to the work in the central hall of the old, main building will probably be too close to noise to be used.

Thomson counted the loss of the library as two classrooms.

He said six rooms can be found through use of other facilities. This would involve partitioning of two home economics rooms, use of the driver training room and the guidance center and of two classrooms for mentally retarded. The mentally retarded program could be transferred to a teachers' lounge, he suggested.

The library could temporarily be established in rooms 24 and 25 and the typing classes that are there now could be moved into portable classrooms.

Portables can be purchased for about $11,250 or leased for from $165 to $300 per month.

Board members asked that specifications for bidding on portables be written so the district could either buy them, lease them or acquire them on a lease-purchase program.

The elementary district may soon face need for portable classrooms, Supt. Bert C. Corona said. He estimated three might be needed.

Board members considered but took no action on leasing office space for special services personnel now at E Street School.

Business manager Charles L. Condrotte told the board that a building at 622 Fourth Street is available and the City of San Rafael is willing to share rental of it for its departments that are also at E Street School.

E Street School, or at least the southwest corner of it, will have to be demolished for street extension. The city has notified the district that the building should be vacated by July 1.

But board members last night considered the possibility of leaving a portion of the building standing. Condrotte said with the corner of the building removed, six classrooms and the auditorium could be saved at a cost of about $20,000 in remodeling and repair.

Board members put off any decision until after the Feb. 18 election when voters are being asked to approve $3,970,000 in bonds for elementary school construction and sites.

The board also delayed until after the election any decision on the architect for additions to Davidson Junior High School.

The board approved a budget item of $1,500 to $2,000 next fiscal year to help finance the move of the San Rafael Cooperative Nursery building, now on the south side of the San Rafael High School campus, to a site at Mission Avenue and Embarcadero Way at a corner of the campus. Parents have put up $4,000 for the move and the school would put up the remainder of total cost, estimated at a maximum $6,000.

Biting Dog Confined

Mrs. D. W. Dorschler of 38 Birch Street, Mill Valley, reported to police at 5:40 p.m. yesterday that her son, Cam, 9, had been bitten by a dog owned by Joseph Filippelli of 26 Florence Avenue. Mrs. Filipelli was advised, police said, to confine the dog 14 days, and the Humane Society was notified.

Tons Of Almonds Bury, Kill Man

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Joe Babich, 32, of North Sacramento, suffocated under tons of almonds yesterday.

Babich was trying to clear a jam that developed as the almonds were being removed from a bin at the California Almond Growers Exchange.

Glen Stalker, general manager of the exchange, said Babich dug a hole to clear the jam. The almonds suddenly began to move, Stalker said, and Babich was buried in the hole. The bin contained between six and 10 tons of almonds.

Show Held Over

"All The World's a Stage," a selection of Shakespearean works performed by Mary Rose McMaster and Jack Aranson of Mill Valley, has been held over one week end at Sausalito's Gate Theater. The program will be given at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

D Street Commercial Plan Due More Study

San Rafael planning commissioners decided last night to give further study to commercial development along D Street, south of Francis Street.

Acting City Planner David DuBiel said the city's general plan shows the area as residential, and that the plan should be a guide.

Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson said he felt the area was "essentially residential," and commercial development was not needed.

Commissioner Orlando Conti said he did not object to new offices being built, but wanted to avoid remodeling of old buildings.

Remodeling results in a hodge-podge, said Commissioner Fred C. Robbins Jr. He said the property owner has the right to the use of his property, but also should have a sense of community responsibility.

"We'd better find out where we're going or we'll have another Lincoln Avenue," said Commissioner Thomas R. O'Toole.

Commissioners agreed to set aside time for a study of D Street, possibly at the end of their special session next Tuesday.

The discussion arose when commissioners considered an application by Lorraine Curley for a permit for an office at 503 D Street.

They postponed action on the permit and a request for architectural approval of the building for two weeks pending further study. The vote was 5-1 with Commissioner Robbins dissenting.

Meeting Postponed

A meeting of the Terra Linda Parks and Recreation District board, scheduled for tonight, has been postponed until 8 p.m. next Wednesday.

San Quentin Escapees Held

Two inmates who left San Quentin Prison's conservation camp at Lower Lake in Lake County Sunday were apprehended last night in San Lorenzo by Alameda County sheriff's deputies.

Arrested were Jerrol E. DuBose, 34, serving a sentence for forgery in Los Angeles County, and Jesse Morrison, 25, sentenced for second degree burglary in Stanislaus County.

Associate Warden Dale B. Frady said the pair, now in the Alameda County Jail, will be returned to Lake County to face escape charges.

San Rafael Chamber To Discuss Plan

San Rafael Chamber of Commerce directors are scheduled to unveil a new promotional plan at a meeting at 7 p.m. today at the chamber office.

The meeting was originally scheduled for yesterday, but was postponed for lack of a quorum.

Coyote Creek Right Of Way Cost To Be $160,000 More

"There is a small matter of $160,000," said County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost yesterday at the close of the meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr then explained. The state had appropriated $500,000 for right of way for the Coyote Creek flood control project, but appraisals of the property to be taken amounted to $160,000 more.

Behr asked that the county quickly ask the governor to put the matter on special call for the state legislature to make an extra appropriation. Otherwise, he said, the project would die. The Board acted immediately, asking County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to draw up the resolution.

The board also approved legal moves to purchase or condemn about 80 parcels along the creek where only parts of the lots would be taken.

Former Nevada Governor Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Former Nevada Gov. Vail M. Pittman, 80, died early today at St. Mary's Hospital after a long illness.

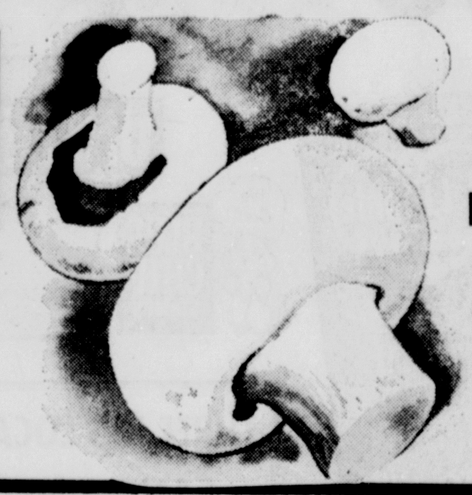

Pittman, who was prominent in mining and publishing as well as Democratic party politics, served as governor from 1945 to 1951.

A native of Vicksburg, Miss., he came west shortly after the turn of the century and ran a coal business in Tonopah, Nev., and was co-owner of a placer mine in Round Mountain, Nev.

Monardo Says He's Running For Council

George D. Monardo announced today he will run for a second term on the Mill Valley City Council.

The vice mayor is the second incumbent to announce candidacy in the April 14 election at which time three seats will be filled. Councilman Michael Wornum earlier announced his candidacy.

Monardo is administrator of Franklin Hospital in San Francisco. The hospital, as well as the Palace Hotel and other councilmen's offices, were locales of several "subcommittee meetings" of the council last year in San Francisco.

Monardo was special advisor to Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco between 1958 and this month when Christopher went out of office.

"I will campaign for re-election on a record of promises kept," said Monardo. Enumerating this record in 1960 assurances, Monardo said they are:

Preservation of the city's unique community life and scenic beauty; encouragement of residential development; effective, economical administration of city government; leadership in meeting needs of expanding population, and cooperation with private enterprise in providing means for harmonious business expansion.

Monardo said he has been "the generally acknowledged leader of sometimes controversial council efforts to put the city on a more business-like basis."

"I have fought for a strong city manager form of government, lower taxes, greater fiscal responsibility and closer budget control, for a pay-as-you-go approach to acquiring a new fire engine, a new fire station in the marshlands, and an improved city employees retirement plan."

He said he has insisted that retirement funds, as well as the city's surplus cash, be invested at a high rate of return. "Recently," he added, "I was instrumental in getting an increased rental from Greyhound for use of the depot without an increase in commuter fares."

Monardo lives at 50 Millay Place in Enchanted Knolls with his wife, Marilyn, and children, Terry Lee, 13, Greg, 12, Jeff, 8, Debbie, 7, and Mary Jane, 6.

Womack To Run Again For Council

J. Wayne Womack, Novato's first mayor, today threw his hat into the ring for one of the three city council positions open in the April 14 city election.

Womack said he would come out with a full platform statement later.

"I will state for the record that I do not think the rate of growth of the city government has not kept pace with the growth of the city. There are not enough projects being carried to completion," he said.

He said he did not think a new city such as Novato, with all of its needs, should have a surplus of money in the city treasury.

Womack was one of the original councilmen elected when Novato became a city in 1960. He served as mayor throughout a two-year term, then dropped off the council to run for county supervisor against William Gnoss. He lost the race.

Last year, he was president of the Novato Chamber of Commerce. He is also a member of the Rotary Club.

He was born in Madill, Okla., on Jan. 18, 1929. He and his wife, Colleen, have five children. Craig, Diane, Elaine, Jennifer and Matthew. They live at 130 Grande Vista.

Prior to coming to Novato, he worked in a bank in Southern California for seven years. He came to Novato in 1950, working in the First National Bank, and later for Pini Hardware. He went into the variety store business in 1958 in the Town and Country Shopping Center on Grant Avenue.

Court Rules For Ex-Red Teachers

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — A California district court of appeal has ordered the State Board of Education to restore the teaching credentials of a man and his wife who admitted Communist Party membership.

The three-judge court ruled unanimously yesterday that the state failed to prove that Wilian and Rita Mack knew the Communist Party advocated the violent overthrow of the United States government.

The Macks admitted membership in the Communist Party from 1953 to 1957, but signed loyalty oaths in 1958 saying that during the five previous years they had not belonged to an organization advocating violent overthrow. They contended they didn't know this to be a Communist aim.

Tam High Society Picks Spring Officers

Margie McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLean of Mill Valley, has been elected president of the Tamalpais High School Spanish honor society for the spring semester. Felicia Del Campo was elected secretary; Steve Shields, treasurer, and Kitty Knapp, program chairman.

The society has collected $10.50 toward a garden to be planted on campus in memory of Vera Stump, former Spanish teacher.

HOME FOR GIRLS GIVEN APPROVAL

San Rafael Planners Pass On Operation To Keep Students Out Of Juvenile Hall

The San Rafael Planning Commission last night approved operation of a home for high school girls by the Marin Foundation of Friends of Arequipa at 1634 Fifth Avenue.

Commissioners granted a two-year permit for operation of the home for girls who otherwise would be housed at juvenile hall through no fault of their own. From six to eight girls are expected to live at the home.

Commissioners set for Feb 25 and March 4 public hearings on rezoning of 15 acres in Terra Linda Highlands, northwest of Oleander Drive, from unclassified to planned community district, requested by Peli Development Co.

There will be a special commission meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday on the controversial application of the Draper Companies for rezoning of 82 acres in the Northgate area and apartment house development.

The commission received copies of the San Rafael General Plan compiled by consultants Daniel P. Coleman and William Spangle, but took no action. Commissioners said they wanted to study the plan before setting hearings.

The San Rafael Planning Commission Also:

The San Rafael Planning Commission also:

1. Granted architectural approval of a 13-unit apartment at 865 Gallinas Avenue and a 19-unit apartment at 101 Nova Albion Way, sought by E. T. Komsthoeft.

2. Approved a two-lot subdivision between Park Street and Union Street, north of Belle Avenue to Paul Lacoste.

3. Granted architectural approval for a six-unit apartment on Clark Street, north of Bayview, and for a 16-unit apartment on Bayview Street between D and Marin Streets, sought by Ribeiro and Watson.

4. Granted a use permit to G. J. Scheuerman for a machine shop at 49 De Long Place.

5. Denied a request by Carl A. Warden for the rezoning of 6.6 acres off Lynn Court, west of Irwin Street and south of Woodland Avenue, from single family residential with 10,000-square-foot lots to planned community district.

6. Granted architectural approval for an office building at the southwest corner of Mission Avenue and Union Street to Dreyer-Wilson and Co.

7. Denied request of W. H. Connolly of 50 Marinita Avenue for a fence in excess of six foot high along his rear lot line.

8. Granted architectural approval for a duplex addition to a lot containing a single family residence at Stevens Place and Highway 101, sought by William Brannan.

9. Denied resubdivision of two lots into four on Elizabeth Way and also denied permission for duplexes at the site, sought by North Bay Associates.

10. Approved a two-lot subdivision at 309 C Street for Charles O. Jones Jr. by 4-2 vote, with Chairman Pat Hetherton and Commissioner Walter Coyne dissenting.

11. Denied a two-lot subdivision at 123 Reservoir Road sought by Robert Harrington because it would create a lot without street frontage.

12. Approved resubdivision of 47 lots of Marin Bay Unit 2-A at McNear and Fernwood Drives, sought by Peacock Gap Inc. after Acting City Planner David DuBiel reported the resubdivision would result in larger lots.

13. Granted architectural approval for alteration to the Marina Apartments, 320 Third Street. A portion of the building will have to be torn down for the widening of Third Street.

14. Granted architectural approval for an addition to the rear of a building at 1033 C Street.

Ranch Hand Gets Pistol Case Term

West Marin ranch hand Daniel Thyne, arrested for stealing a pistol from the Palace Food Market in Point Reyes Station, was sentenced yesterday to 30 days in the county jail on a reduced charge.

A charge of burglary was changed to trespassing and loitering after the public defender held at preliminary hearing that Thyne was drunk and "didn't know what he was doing."

Judge Harold J. Haley gave Thyne credit on the sentence for 12 days already served in jail while awaiting court action. Thyne, 22, is a milker at the Point Reyes dairy ranch of James Spaletta.

Wilkinson Signs Up As Republican

NOMAN, Okla. (UP) — Bud Wilkinson, former Oklahoma football coach, who says he is interested in switching to a career in politics, changed his voter registration today from Democrat to Republican.

It has been rumored that Wilkinson is considering running for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Oklahoma's junior Democratic senator, J. Howard Edmondson.

The man elected in November will serve two years of the unexpired term of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr.

Steadman To Fete Russians

Dr. Monte G. Steadman of 100 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera, will be host tonight for two Russians, Prof. Vladimir Kovanov from a Russian medical college and Alice Bobrysheva, a Soviet Peace Committee worker.

The two are among a group of six Russians visiting the United States on a trip sponsored by the Committee for Non Violent Action. Steadman is a member of this committee, of the Marin Peace Information Center's council and of the American Friends Service Committee.

He was skipper of the Everyman II which sailed from Hawaii into the United State's nuclear test area in 1962.

The Russians were invited to the United States to see what work is being done here for peace.

$400,000 U.S. Funds Available For School

Members of the San Rafael of Education learned last night that $40,000 in federal funds are available to finance science facilities at Terra Linda High School.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said this will help in the plannned conversion of three classrooms to science laboratories and will finance other science equipment purchases at the school.

The availability of the money through the National Defense Education Act, was discovered this week when school officials met with a resprentative of the federal program.

Corona said, in order for the high school district to receive the money, plans must be completed by July 1.

Applications for funds under the act are being pressed for San Rafael High Schools also.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Heard a report on a research project aimed at quicker identification of "non-achieving" high school students who have the ability to get but fail to get passing grades.

2. Learned from Lawrence Weseman of the accounting firm of Main, Lafrentz and Co. of Oakland, that the district's books were in good shape as of June 30, 1963.

3. Authorized the auction of four trucks and a tractor.

4. Authorized the sale of worn textbooks to students at 25-cents each.

5. Approved application for state allocations under the emergency closure provision for Terra Linda High which was closed last Jan. 21 due to a power failure.

6. Hired Tove Duncan as a French teacher at Terra Linda high, and Mary Madden as an English teacher at San Rafael high.

7. Learned in a letter from Jim Wieder of Minto and Wilkie Insurance Agency, San Rafael, that the district's fire insurance rates are guaranteed to remain unchanged until July 1, 1965, and will not now be subject to increases.

8. Named board member Carl J. Brown to sit in on salary meetings conducted by the district's classified (non-teaching) employees.

Lagunitas May Have To Pay More For Frye Replacement

The Lagunitas School District may well have to pay more to get a replacement for Supt. Clifford L. Frye, whose forced resignation was accepted by a split vote of trustees amid a loud protest by district residents.

Board Chairman Glen E. Twitchell said today it is very possible the district will have to offer more than the $10,000 a year Frye is receiving.

Twitchell reported on a special meeting of the trustees last night, saying that brochures soliciting applicants will describe the salary as ranging from $9,000 to $12,000 a year.

The board met with Dr. Rudolph S. Kupfer, assistant superintendent of county schools. He was asked to prepare brochures describing the job. They are to be distributed throughout the state. Deadline for applications will be March 11.

The job must be filled July 1, the day after Frye's contract expires.

Twitchell said the county schools office and representatives of the Lagunitas board will sit on a screening committee. The top five applicants will then be interviewed for the job by the trustees, possibly with the aid of Dr. Kupfer, Twitchell said.

Toronto Fans Find Liz Despite Secrecy

TORONTO (AP) — Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor, traveling without luggage under assumed names, wound up a transcontinental flight to Toronto last night in all the secrecy of a Hollywood premiere.

Despite elaborate precautions — a hidden limousine, secluded customs inspection, and sidedoor entrances—hundreds of fans mobbed the couple at the airport and at their downtown hotel.

Novatan Fined $176 For Drunken Driving

Garrett Austin Britton, 34, of 2063 Feliz Road, Novato, was fined $176 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving last Oct. 16 on Highway 101 near the Richardson Bay Bridge.

Judge Harold J. Haley also put Britton on probation for nine months.

Scavengers To Serve Almonte

Scavenger service under a 10-year contract for 500 homes in Almonte was agreed to by Almonte Santary District directors Monday night.

The contract was made with Joseph DeMartini Co. of Sausalito. It is the district's first such contract, said chairman Robert A. Alexander.

The board, meeting with the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District board and Donald R. Frost, county director of public works, discussed the possibility of annexation of Kay Park sewer system to Tamalpais and Almonte Districts. No decision was reached. The Kay Park system, serving 150 homes, is the county's only sewer system, Alexander said.

The Tamalpais High Music Club has begun its series of "Music at Lunchtime" programs Fridays at noon.

Novato Swim Pool Contract Is Voted

Contract for Novato's long-awaited municipal swimming pool was awarded last night by the Novato City Council to Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma at $113,625.

Architects, inspection and other fees are expected to increase the amount to $131,105.

The council set up a revolving fund of $132,000 to cover the cost of the pool. This will be made up of $100,000 from the sale of bonds voted in November, 1962, $16,000 from the undistributed reserve of the parks and recreation department, $16,000 from the city's general fund.

The bonds were sold to the Bank of America, lower of two bidders, at interest averaging 3.46 per cent.

The contract calls for completion of the pool on the high school campus within 120 days.

Councilman Robert D. Carrow was named as a one man committee to see if the city council could work with the San Jose Elementary and Novato Unified School District boards toward speeding unification.

"If the city will take the initiative, it might bring the warring factions of the two school boards together," Carrow suggested.

The Novato City Council also:

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Set the hours for the April 14 city election from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. The extra hour was added so commuters would have more of a chance to vote.
2. Authorized the parks and recreation advisory commission to prepare a tree ordinance.
3. Authorized the city administrator to hire a second junior civil engineer at $612 or $643 per month instead of the $583 as advertised.
4. Hired the Public Works Department of Marin County to do inspections on subdivision streets until March 31 when the new head of the Novato Public Works Department will be able to handle them.
5. Voted to favor a proposed $4 dog license fee in a county-wide uniform animal control ordinance.
6. Appointed Councilman Everett Pozzi, City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. and City Administrator J. Julien Baget as an anti-litter committee.
7. Authorized purchase of a special lighted blueprint table for $250 and an electric typewriter for $420.
8. Approved application to the state for $5,000 for street engineering from the gasoline tax fund.
9. Authorized paying half the fees, not to exceed $1,000, with Carlos E. Gonzales, San Rafael engineer, on relocation of Oleander Street. This city street goes through the Gnoss Estates and Gonzalez has asked for abandonment of the present street for a new location. The fee is to cover engineering costs of such a proposed relocation.
10. Denied a request by Gilbert Byers to erect carports at the Vallejo Apartments at Vallejo Avenue and Third Street because they would eliminate four parking places and be constructed with no side yard setbacks.
11. Granted a use permit for a 90-bed convalescent hospital at 655 Canyon Road to Hans S. Eide. The permit is void if construction has not started within six months.
12. Adopted a revised set of rules on use of the Community House as recommended by the parks and recreation commission.

Injured Deer Shot

A deer with a broken leg was shot yesterday morning by Sgt. John Imperiale of the Mill Valley police in the creek bed near Gardiner Street after it had been chased by a pack of dogs. Jack Furchak of 166 Almonte Boulevard, reported the dog pack to police.

The vote was by secret ballot.

Serving as vice president will be Hale. Director Marion C. Ibach will again serve as secretary.

The Marin Hospital District board also:

1. Awarded the contract for an X-ray processor to Sicular Supply Co. at $9,300.
2. Accepted the resignation of associate administrator Thomas J. Broderick with regret.
3. Added to the agenda space for questions from the public and the press and a monthly report by Administrator William W. Turner.
4. Approved the recommendation of the volunteer council that the council's by-laws be amended because the present regulations are difficult to function under.
5. Approved warrants totaling $242,227.48.

Russ Hockey Team Whips U.S. 5-1 As Olympics Start

By HENRY W. THORNBERRY

INNSBRUCK, Austria (UPI)—Russia's powerful hockey team crushed the defending champion United States team today 5-1 shortly after the formal opening of the ninth Winter Olympic Games.

The games, which will go on for the next 12 days in and around this city in the Tyrolean Alps, were officially declared open at 5:50 a.m., EST, by Austrian President Adolf Schaerf with tradition pomp and pageantry before a crowd of 60,000 at the Olympic Stadium.

Then, in the first actual competition, the Soviet hockey stars completely outplayed the Americans to emphasize the fact that Russia is favored to retain the overall unofficial championship of the games.

Only brilliant goaltending by Tom Yurkovich of Rochester, Minn., despite a painful knee injury, kept the Soviets from scoring an even more lopsided victory.

Yurkovich a 28-year-old former University of North Dakota star, turned back a total of 58 Soviet shots. He stopped 26 of them in the first period—and at the end of the period suffered a painful injury to his left knee when his skate caught on the goal post as he swung around.

At that point the Russians held only a 1-0 lead. The Soviets added three goals in the second period and one in the third while Jim Allen of Minneapolis, Minn., averted a shutout for the U.S. team by scoring in the third period.

The defeat did not eliminate the U.S. team, since the hockey tournament is a round-robin competition.

Two other hockey games were scheduled today, Czechoslovakia vs. Germany and Canada vs. Switzerland, and competition in pairs figure skating was scheduled tonight.

The U.S. hockey team, defending the Olympic title that the Yanks won in a big surprise at the 1960 games in Squaw Valley, put up a dead-game fight but simply didn't have the guns to cope with the Soviets, who are the current holders of the World Amateur Hockey championship.

The Americans took 25 shots, 14 of them in the third period, but only Westby's 15-foot rebound after a shot by Gay Schmalzbauer of St. Paul, Minn., found the twine.

Jakushev scored two of the Soviet goals, while Firsov, Boris Maiorov, and Starshinov had one each for the Soviets.

The clash was the first between the two nations in a year which will see them meeting many times in winter and summer Olympic events.

Blue skies formed a background for snow-capped Alpine peaks at the official opening of the games in Olympic Stadium, following a parade into the arena of 400 colorfully-dressed athletes and officials of 35 nations competing in the games.

The crowd, which include the Shah and Empress of Iran, already was in a gay holiday mood, heightened by a forecast from the weatherman that snow, a painfully scarce item during the unusually mild winter here, may arrive in quantity later today.

The opening day ceremonies will be telecast tonight at 10 o'clock (PST) over KGO (Channel 7). The station will telecast action during the entire Winter Olympics.

PHOTOGRAPHER BREAKS FIRST OLYMPIC RECORD

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—The gas-fed Olympic flame had only just settled down to a steady hiss when the first record of the Winter Games was broken.

A photographer ventured out onto the steep, icy landing slope for the Olympic ski jump, lost his footing and slid 75.5 meters down the hill on the seat of his pants.

It broke the old record established at Melbourne in 1956 by a reporter who tripped while speeding to beat the 6 p.m. bar-closing time in Australia and skidded across a busy 100-foot intersection on his camera.

The ski-sliding photographer drew one of the loudest cheers of the opening ceremony from the crowd of perhaps 50,000 persons who sprawled over the Bergisel hill to watch the ninth Winter Games get started.

The ceremony was crisp, brief and informal.

Boys and girls in Alpine costumes with wooden jugs slung around their necks passed out samples. The band marched in step, except for a straggle of tuba players who missed the starting signal and had to run to catch up.

Japanese took dozens of pictures of each other. So did Finns. Avery Brundage made a speech in German, with a Midwestern accent.

All 36 teams marched in reasonably good step, although the big German team had a little trouble, which might indicate how times have changed.

Bulldogs Down Redwood '5' After Trailing At Halftime

Held to seven points in the first half during which his undefeated teammates faced a 28-33 deficit, San Rafael High School star Rod Monti found his scoring eye in the third and fourth periods to lead the Bulldogs to a 62-56 victory over the Redwood Giants yesterday at Redwood.

Monti tallied nine points in the third period to pull San Rafael even with the Giants at 44-44 and then pumped in 10 more during the final stanza as the Bulldogs won their fifth Marin Athletic League game going away.

Monti's 26 points for the afternoon, including 12 on free throws out of 16 attempts, lifted his five game league-leading total to 114. The Bulldogs thus maintained their one and one-half game lead over second place Marin Catholic in the title race.

Redwood, which led 16-15 and 33-28 at the end of the first two quarters, was a model of scoring balance. Final box scores show five Giants in double figures, but Coach Dick Hart groaned, "We had balanced scoring, but not enough of it. Monti was the difference."

The San Rafael scoring ace also was a big man under the boards, leading all rebounders. Pat Haven, subbing for starter John McKinnon at center much of the game because the latter had four personal fouls against him in the first half and eventually fouled out, also was outstanding.

Rich Ahern had 11 points to follow Monti in San Rafael's scoring while Larry Herst with 14 led Redwood. With 10 each for the Giants were Bob Piro, Hillard Witt, Dave Auerbach and Jim Halm. Auerbach made all of his from the foul line; Halm was credited by Hart for his best game of the season.

San Rafael	15	13	16	18—56
Redwood	16	17	11	12—62

San Rafael scorers—Rod Monti, 7-12-26; Rich Ahern, 5-1-11; John McKinnon, 3-0-6; Pat Haven, 2-3-7; Steve Spurling, 2-0-4; Wade Roberts, 4-0-8. Totals: 23-16—62.

Novato 'B' Team Wins 5th Straight

Novato High School's Class B cage team remained undefeated in Marin Athletic League action yesterday with a 42-31 victory over the Drake High School Bees.

The league-leading Hornets now have five victories in MAL play. After holding a 19-16 halftime lead yesterday, Novato found itself trailing in the third quarter. But the Novato team found the range and pulled out in front to stay.

Don Phillips led the Novatans with 12 points and Chet Carlisle hit 11 for Drake.

In other Class B games last night Redwood nipped San Rafael 56-55 in the last second of play and Marin Catholic walloped Tamalpais 53-30.

In the thriller of the evening Redwood's Russ Smith scored the winning field goal with one second remaining. San Rafael's Jeff Allen wore the hero's crown momentarily as he put the Bullpups ahead 55-54 with only 11 seconds to play, only to have the victory snatched away on Smith's last-second shot.

John McGee with 17 points and Smith with 16 led Redwood while Paul Schmidt, Bill Pandiani and Allen led San Rafael with 14, 13 and 12, respectively.

Jim Tupper led Marin Catholic's victory with 15 points.

Cal Coach Now At Stanford

STANFORD (UPI) — Former Asst. California Coach Mike White will join John Ralston's staff at Stanford.

White, who was a triple letter winner as an undergraduate at California, stayed on at Berkeley for five years where he was a defensive line coach.

He resigned at the end of the past season so that he could "better his coaching career at another institution."

The move to Stanford was not unexpected, since he is a close friend of Ralston. Both men are considered excellent recruiters of high school grid talent.

Hornets Rip Drake By 70-41

Novato High School's Hornets, who experienced their first sweet taste of Marin Athletic League basketball victory last week, sat down for their third helping yesterday.

Utilizing the fast break as if they invented it, the hungry Hornets blitzed the Drake Pirates, 70-41, at the Drake gym for their third straight league win after two earlier losses to vault into third place while handing the Pirates their fourth loss against one win.

It was a fairly even tussle in the first half with Novato holding leads of 14-11 and 28-25 at the end of the first two periods. But in the third quarter the Hornets broke it wide open with a 25-8 spree led by big Fred Arnold who scored 11 in that period and wound up with 21 points for the afternoon.

The Hornets controlled both backboards, with Arnold the big rebounder, and enjoyed success on the fast break. Nick Willard followed Arnold in the scoring parade with 19 points.

Bob Brackett and Rick Henika with 11 each and Lorry Galassi with 10 were Drake's top point producers.

Individual scoring:
Novato	14	14	25	17—70

Seminary Wins

The Baptist Seminary team clobbered the Post Office five 89-29 last night in Class C action of the San Rafael Recreation Department adult basketball league.

Wildcats End First Half With Triumph Over Tam

Coach Bernie Schneider's Marin Catholic Wildcats jumped off to a 23-13 first half lead, fought off a serious Tamalpais threat in the third stanza and wound up on the happy end of a 59-42 margin over the Indians yesterday in their Marin Athletic League basketball duel at Tam's gym.

In picking up their fourth league win against two setbacks to stay in second place, one and one-half games behind pace-setting San Rafael, the Wildcats were led by big Bruce Makinson and Tom Soden.

Makinson, a 6-4 senior, resembled an octopus as he tallied 23 points—11 in the first half and 12 in the second—and hauled down 16 rebounds as the Wildcats completely dominated the backboards. They got off 70 floor shots, making 24 of them, while the cold Tamites hit on only 11 of 46 from the floor.

Tam made a run at the Wildcats in the third stanza, closing the gap to 22-27 at one point, but Marin pulled away.

Makinson's 23 points marked his season high. Soden contributed 16 points, all in the first three periods, and sat out the final quarter. Phil Ferris with 10 rebounds and six points was another key Wilcat.

Marin Catholic completed the first round of the double round robin schedule and will draw a league bye Friday while the league's other six teams complete their first round.

Marin Catholic	11	12	19	17—59

TV Pact For AFL— $36 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Football League and the National Broadcasting Co. signed a five-year contract today for television of AFL games for a total price of 36 million dollars. The contract becomes effective with the 1965 season, after the present AFL contract with the American Broadcasting Co. expires.

The AFL contract is comparable to the 28.2 million dollar two-year agreement signed by the National Football League with the Columbia Broadcasting System last Friday.

The NFL contract breaks down to slightly over 1 million dollars per team per season for the 14-team league, while each of the eight AFL teams will receive $900,000 a year under the NBC contract.

The ABC network has a holdover contract for 1964 which will pay the 2.35 million dollars for the season with an additional payment for the league's All-Star game.

Seals Lose Hockey Match To Vancouver

VANCOUVER (UPI)—The San Francisco Seals helped Vancouver snap a six-game losing streak last night by falling to the Canucks, 7-5.

Los Angeles meanwhile lost at Denver so the California teams remain deadlocked for second place in the Western Hockey League.

Vancouver was one man short in the final seconds of last night's game with the score 6-5. So the Seals pulled their goalie and thus had six men attacking four.

That plan dismally flopped when Vancouver's Bob Kabel stole the puck and scored into the empty net to the delight of the more than 2,000 fans.

San Francisco grabbed a 3-0 lead in the first period as Len Haley, Ray Cyr, and Charley Burns blinked the red light. Vancouver then got rolling and the wild first stanza ended with the Seals leading 4-3. Wayne Connally hit the fourth Seal goal.

Vancouver pulled to a 5-5 count after two periods as only Mo Mantha could manage a tally for San Francisco.

Defenseman Ron Matthews, who also had four assists, put Vancouver ahead to stay with a tally half-way through the final stanza and then Kabel's goal put frosting on the victory cake.

The two teams meet here in a rematch Friday night.

Terra Linda Cagers Win

Terra Linda's varsity cage team, idle from Marin Athletic League action yesterday, traveled to Oceana High School to get a victory, 61-44.

The Trojans led all the way, posting a 31-18 halftime lead. The Trojans had a balanced scoring attack with five cagers hitting double figures. They were Bill Brody, 12; Bill Lee, 11; Brian Perron, 11; Don Knotts, 11, and Kraig Kilby, 10.

The Terra Linda Class B cagers also won, 58-41. Craig Hill led the junior Trojans with 12 points.

San Rafael And Redwood Split

San Rafael's junior varsity cagers downed Redwood's J. V. team yesterday 29-25, but the Redwood frosh got revenge with a 39-26 win over the Bulldogs.

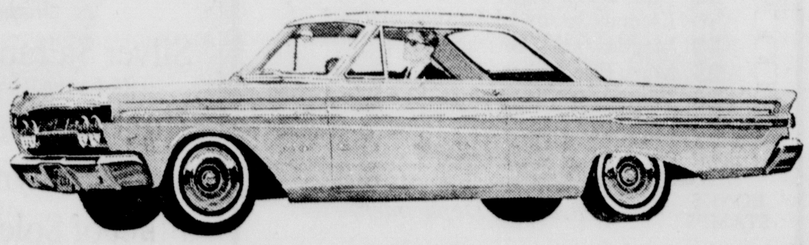

In the junior varsity game, Bill Underman had 10 points for San Rafael and John Zweig had six for Redwood. In the freshman game, Kevin Wilson of Redwood topped the scoring with 19 points.

AUSTRIAN ARMY BY LAND, BY AIR

Austrian soldiers help Winter Olympic officials by land and by air before opening of the Olympic Games in Innsbruck, Austria. Warriors Win; Now Face Celts

BOSTON (UPI)—The San Francisco Warriors, fresh one of their most impressive wins of the season, tangle with Boston tonight in National Basketball Assn. play.

Boston, 35-12 for the year, is always almost unbeatable at home, but got a real battle from the Warriors in their last meeting here. San Francisco was 19 points down late in the going, but almost evened the score before losing by three.

The Warriors and St. Louis Hawks both hope to cash in on the injury to Jerry West, key star of the Western Division leading Los Angeles squad. San Francisco rolled over Philadelphia last night in a wild 139-117 decision, while Los Angeles lost by one point at Detroit. St. Louis was idle.

GAIN ON L.A.

That left the Hawks two games back of Los Angeles and the Warriors a half bame back of St. Louis. Los Angeles meets Philadelphia tonight at Boston as a prelude to the Celts-Warriors battle.

Philadelphia grabbed a 74-59 half-time lead over San Francisco last night after blistering the hoop for 44 points in the second quarter alone.

But after the intermission, it was all San Francisco. The Warriors outscored the cool 76ers, 41-17, in the final stanza.

BIG NIGHT

Wilt Chamberlain had one of his really big nights as he exploded for 59 points, tying his own NBA season's high. Wilt had a superb 24 out of 36 from the floor and added 11 for 20 free throws.

His performance overshadowed that of Tom Meschery, who tossed in 29 for San Francisco. That was six more points than he had made in any other game this season. Wayne Hightower added 15 and Nate Thurmond tossed in 11 and was murder on the boards as usual.

One of the league's best, Hal Greer, had a big night for Philadelphia with 41 points. Backcourt mate Larry Costello added 20, but the 76er front line could not hold up its end of the scoring load.

QUITE A SUCCESS STORY

Wolman Is On 'Cloud Nine'

By OSCAR FRALEY

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Jerry Wolman, who as a kid hitchhiked 100 miles from Shenandoah, Pa., to watch the Philadelphia Eagles pro football team, is riding along on "Cloud Nine" today as the team's new owner.

Wolman is a slender, black-haired man with a golden touch. To substantiate that, all he accomplished was to pile up $36 million in his 36 years.

As a hobby he bought the Eagles last month for $5,500,000 and suddenly the team's claiming more of his attention than business ever did.

MORALE

"All we need to be a contender," he said as he attended yesterday's opening session of the National Football League's annual meetings, "is to fill a few spots and build up the morale. I'll leave the personnel to the coaching staff, but I'll set certain ground rules for whoever gets this job. Only now suddenly do I realize what a responsibility I have to the fans."

Nick Skorich, the Eagle coach, was let go in the new broom deal for the Eagles. Paul Brown, formerly of the Cleveland Browns, and Joe Kuharich, erstwhile of Notre Dame and pro football, both have been interviewed among others, but Wolman doesn't expect to pick his new coach "for a couple of weeks."

The six-foot, one-inch Wolman is "learning the ropes" from other NFL owners at the current session, but he probably could give them a few pointers, too.

EX SANDLOTTER

Because this one-time sandlot gridder, who played "on gravel fields," is one of the brightest success stories in sports. He served in the Merchant Marine in the European and Mediterranean theaters from 1943 through 1945 and then opened a fruit store in Wilkes Barre, Pa. The business fell through and in 1953 Wolman gave his wife three choices.

"I told her we could go back to Shenandoah or to Philadelphia or New York," he remembers. "She didn't want to live in any of those places at that time. So we gambled."

And how.

"We put all our belongings in our car," Wolman explained. "Then we decided that we pick up the first hitchhiker we saw and go wherever he was going."

They picked up a young man at Pottsville, Pa., who was heading for George Washington University in Washington, D. C.—and that's where they went.

Wolman obtained a job in a wallpaper and paint store and suddenly found his niche while delivering material to construction jobs.

"I knew I wanted to build things from the ground up," he said. "There was a small property across the street from the paint store. I borrowed $5,000 and built 16 apartment units on that ground."

From that start Wolman has constructed more than 12,000 apartments and "a couple million square feet" of office buildings.

Wolman early last month "heard a rumor" that his old love, the Eagles, was up for sale. Casually he mentioned to his attorney, Earl Foreman, that he intended to buy the club. They did it together, Wolman holding 52 per cent and Foreman taking the remaining 48 per cent.

ONLY EAGLES

"I'll need more luck in football than I did in the construction business," he admits. "I wouldn't have been interested in any other team in the league. But the Eagles, oh boy."

Wolman and his wife, Anne, have two children, Alan, 11, and Helene, 13. And Alan is riding right along on "Cloud Nine" with his father.

"He even wears his Eagle hat to bed," Wolman said, adding with a wide grin, "me too."

It's a fantastic success story and it means one thing for certain. Those Eagles are in for a brand new deal. Wolman is a man who has become accustomed to flying high and they'd better figure on going right along with him.

Washington Nips OSU In Overtime Contest

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Oregon and Washington might still be playing basketball if it weren't for husky reserve Dick Lee.

He hit a jumper with 25 seconds to go in the second overtime last night to give the Huskies a 69-67 victory. Oregon's Bill Jennings tried a 35-footer at the final buzzer that almost sent the contest into a third extra session. But it missed.

The regular contest ended a 59-all and the first overtime at 63-all. A layin by Washington's Bruce Brickner with two seconds to go ended the first overtime.

Clint Peeples hit 19 for Washington before fouling out. Steve Jones and Larry Cooley each potted 16 for the Ducks.

Touring Santa Clara was out of its weight class at Providence where the Friars took an 82-71 decision. Russ Vrankovich was high for the Broncos with 24.

Portland, which looks a little better every game, ran its record to 10-5 with an 85-68 romp over Pepperdine.

Six foot 9 Steve Anstett was all over the court with 31 points and 18 rebounds.

USF did not look rusty after its two week layoff when it came back to slaughter San Francisco State, 81-46. Ollie Johnson led the Dons to their 10th win in 14 tries with 18 points.

Alaska lost at North Dakota, 109-76, in a game which saw the opposing coaches get in a brief scuffle. Alaska coach Bill Ordway managed to draw two technical fouls for his actions.

Humboldt State upset Chico State, 61-51, in a contest that left both teams 3-1 in Far West Conference play. Nevada is 2-0.

Arizona State University started five underclassmen for the first time this season and rolled over Loyola of Los Angeles 82-64. The Sun Devils took the lead late in the first quarter and never lost it. High man for Loyola was Dick Schiendler with 17 points.

National Football League Boosts Player Limit To 40

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The prosperous National Football League, riding high with a new $28.2 million television contract and a record attendance of 4,163,643, has boosted its player limit to 40 men in a move that should cut down on taxi or reserve squads.

The league acted to stabilize squads yesterday by increasing the player limit from 37 to 40 players, who must come from a 560-man pool remaining after the final cutdown.

"The spirit of the new rule is to stop shuttling players on and off the active list," said Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

"The new player limit will have the effect of cutting down on taxi squads," explained Jim Kensil, league public relations chief. "Unless you can bring up a player during the season there is not much point of carrying him on a taxi squad for next year."

Most of the pro teams carry reserves who are members of a so-called taxi squad, over and above the player limit. Normally they can be brought up to the active list when a regular is injured.

Under the new rule the only replacements for the list of 40 men, remaining after the final cutdown on the last Tuesday before the season opens, must come from the master list of 560 players. The list represents the 40 players by each of the 14 clubs.

Rozelle said a special exception had been made in case four men are injured and rendered inactive for the rest of the season. In that case, one outsider could be added who was not on the list of 560. Of course, the usual deals and waiver transactions can be made.

The NFL also approved closed circuit television of the home games of any club in its local blackout area, normally 75 miles. Each club is permitted to make its own deal, with the proceeds included in normal gate receipts and divided 60 per cent to the home team and 40 per cent to the visitors.

Closed circuit in the Chicago area of the Chicago Bears-New York Giants title game Dec. 29 brought $35,043.56 into the record championship receipts of $1,493,954.06

The league office announced a financial breakdown of the title game. Each winning share of the Bears was worth $5,899.77 and each losing share of the Giants was $4,218.51. Both were records.

The Bears got 49½ shares, the Giants 45½. Green Bay players got $577.50 each and Cleveland Browns $521.97 from the pool for conference second place teams.

A motion to count tie games as one-half victory and one-half defeat was withdrawn after a sample of sentiment showed most clubs were against it. The visiting club will be permitted to wear its distinctive colored uniforms in 1964 if the home club agrees to wear the white shirts.

Have Boxing Fans Joined With Liston?

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "Well, nobody can beat me so I guess the people decided to join me."

This was Sonny Liston's reaction when someone remarked at a news conference yesterday that the sometimes surly heavyweight champion's popularity seemed to be on the rise.

The reporters wondered if it wasn't a case of a "new" Liston deciding to join the people. They had never seen him so jovial and perfectly at ease.

"Why so happy, Sonny?" he was asked. "I got Cassius Clay for Christmas," he laughed.

Liston started his on-site training for the Feb. 25 fight with Clay by staging a 10-round workout before a full house in the 300-seat Surfside Community Center.

Former 49er To Coach At UOP

STOCKTON (AP)—A veteran professional defensive player, Ed Henke, will join the University of the Pacific in February as assistant football coach.

The 36-year-old Henke retired at the end of the 1963 season as player and assistant coach of the St. Louis Cardinals. He had played in his 14 years with two Canadian teams, the defunct Los Angeles Dons and several years with the San Francisco 49ers.

Skorich Joins Browns' Staff

MIAMI, Fla. (UPI)—Nick Skorich, recently let out by the Philadelphia Eagles, joined the Cleveland Browns' coaching staff yesterday as assistant to head coach Blanton Collier.

Appointment of the 42-year-old Skorich, who had served as head coach of the Eagles from 1961 through 1963, was announced by president Arthur Modell of the Browns, attending the National Football League meetings.

Skorich, a veteran of 16 years in football, was the sixth assistant hired by the Browns, who now have their coaching staff at full strength.

Pitchers Hendley, Herbel Sign '64 Giant Contracts

The San Francisco Giants announced today the signing of pitchers Bob Hendley and Ron Herbel.

Hendley, 24, is the left-hander the Giants obtained in their big winter trade with the Milwaukee Braves. That exchange saw the Giants give up catcher Ed Bailey and outfielder Felipe Alou for Handley, pitcher Bob Shaw and catcher Del Crandall.

Hendley had a 9-9 record with Milwaukee in 1963. He is expected to win a regular job on the Giants pitching staff this year.

Herbel, a 26-year-old right-hander, posted a 13-18 record at Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League in 1963. However, he had a fine 3.17 earned run average, best of his career.

He's been up twice before and thus will be making his final chance to win a job with the Giants.

THE FRIENDLY FAUNS, third grade Blue Birds, adapt one of assistant-leader Mrs. W. E. Moreno's recipes in order to use the Camp Fire mints which they will begin selling on Friday. From left, are Madelyn Crawford, Lisa Moreno, Dianne Newirth and Terry Goacher. The girls all attend Loma Verde School. (Gerrie Reichard photos)

Camp Fire Girls Mint Sale Will Begin Friday Afternoon

Starting Friday afternoon, Camp Fire Girls in Marin will begin their annual mint sale. The girls will travel in pairs in their own neighborhoods, dressed in their traditional red, white and blue costumes. This is their one and only chance to earn money for their own organization. Last year they sold enough candy to add over $16,000 to the local council. This amount supplements the funds received from United Crusade and is needed to support the year-round operational expenses of Camp Fire Girls.

LEADERS, TOO, feel that the selling project gives the girls a sense of achievment and pride in contributing to the growth and continuing of their organization. Each group can earn a small amount from the number of boxes they sell to use in their own individual projects, group activities, trips or special events. In 1963 the group profits ammounted to a total of $1,576. Each girl who sells 20, 40, 60, 80 or 100 boxes will earn a special felt award to wear on her ceremonial costume.

CHAIRMAN OF THE Camp Fire Mint sale is Mrs. Rosco Smith of San Anselmo. Working with her as special sales chairmen in each of Marin's five Camp Fire districts are:

Southern Marin: Mrs. Walter Long, 111 Alto Vista, Mill Valley.

Redwood district: Mrs. W. C. Voight, 41 Hickory, Corte Madera.

San Rafael: Mrs. David Burt, 140 Greenwood Ave., San Rafael.

Novato district: Mrs. Harold Craig, 24 St. Johns Court, Novato.

The goal is for each Blue Bird, Camp Fire Girl and Horizon Club member to sell 20 boxes of mints. Last years' top salesmen were Mrs. Donald Anderson's Ko-Ka-Ni seventh graders from Davidson School. Each of the 16 girls in the group sold 100 boxes.

HERE'S AN "out of this world" receipe for making up the total amount of Camp Fire Mints the girls will sell this year.

Mix
- 91,845 eggs
- 318,942 pounds of sugar
- 503 pints of pure oil of peppermint

Dip heavily in 199,625 pounds of rich chocolate

THESE MINTS are delightful to use in especially tested recipes:

CHOCOLATE-MINT-PRESS COOKIES

Cream
- ½ cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar

Blend
- 1 egg
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 2 T milk

Add
- 7 Camp Fire Mints, melted and slightly cooled

Blend
- 2 cups flour

Press
- through cookie press (filled only ½ full) on to greased baking sheet in fancy shapes

Bake
- 350° for 5-7 minutes
- Cool before storing

VANILLA REFRIGERATOR COOKIES
- ½ cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 6 Camp Fire mints, diced
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 1½ cups sifted flour
- ½ tsp baking soda
- ½ tsp salt

Cream shortening and sugar: add egg and vanilla. Mix thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients and gradually add to creamed mixture. Stir in 6 Camp Fire mints. Shape in roll 1¾ inches thick. Wrap in wax paper. Chill several hours. Cut in ⅛ inch slices. Bake on greased cookie sheet at 325°.

CHOCOLATE MINT WAFERS
- ½ cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 6 Camp Fire mints (melted)
- 2 eggs
- 1 T milk
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 2 cups flour
- ½ tsp salt

Cream butter and sugar, add melted mints, then beat in eggs one at a time. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla. Spread out thinly on 2 buttered cookie sheets and bake at 325° for 10 minutes. When cool, spread with any icing and cut into squares.

CHOCO-MINT-WHEELS
- ⅔ cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 egg yolks
- ⅜ cup milk
- 3 cups flour
- ½ tsp salt
- 1 tsp baking pwd
- 6 Camp Fire mints (melted)

Crean butter and sugar, add egg yolk and beat. Add vanilla and milk alternately with dry ingredients. Divide dough in half; add melted mints to half of batter. Chill 2 hours. Roll each part into two rectangles ¼ inch thick. Put chocolate section on top of white, and roll, jelly-roll fashion. Wrap in wax paper: store in refrigerator overnight. Slice ⅛ inch thick and bake 10 minutes on buttered sheet at 375°.

MARBLE MINT SQUARES (formerly called Brownies)

Cream
- 1 cup butter
- 1½ tsp vanilla
- 2 cups sugar

Add
- 4 eggs, beating well after each
- 2 cups sifted flour
- ½ tsp salt
- 2 cups chopped nuts

Divide batter and add to one half
- 7 Camp Fire mints, melted. Run knife through to marbleize.

Drop batter alternately into greased 13x9x2 pan. Bake at 350° about 45 minutes. Frost with Chocolate-mint frosting and cut in 3x1½ inch bars.

3½ Camp Fire mints equal 1 oz. square unsweetened chocolate and can be substituted in most recipes that call for melted chocolate and mixed with creamed batter.

Bake your favorite chocolate or plain cake and place Camp Fire mints on the top of each layer immediately when taken from the oven. When cool. put together as usual and frost with chocolate frosting.

SIMPLE AND DELICIOUS: Place Camp Fire mints over top of a piping hot pound cake and let them melt in! A delightful filling for cake is to place chopped Camp Fire mints and toasted walnuts or almonds between the layers and frost as usual.

GOURMET SUGAR COOKIES: Make plain sugar cookies. When done and still hot, place a Camp Fire mint on top and sprinkle with slivered nuts.

Here's a wonderful recipe that the Camp Fire Girls are especially fond of: Save at least one box of Camp Fire mints and use them this summer!

OLD FASHION HOME FREEZER ICE CREAM
- 8 well beaten eggs
- 1½ cups sugar
- 1 quart half-and-half
- 1 quart milk

Mix ingredients well and put in refrigerator to chill (makes less turning). Just before starting the freezer, drop in two dozen dark chocolate Camp Fire mints. This flavors the ice cream delightfully and leaves tasty chocolate "bits."

Supervisors Wait On Dog Law Decision

Marin County supervisors yesterday discussed additional refinements on the proposed uniform animal control ordinance, but took no action, postponing further discussion to a meeting of Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen in Fairfax tonight.

The animal ordinance, much discussed by representatives of the county's 10 cities and by supervisors, would standardize regulations throughout the county.

NUISANCE CLAUSE

Mel L. Morse, director of the Marin County Humane Society, told the board the nuisance clause in the ordinance is more restricting than a "leash law." Even dogs on a leash can cause a nuisance, he said.

Supervisors heard a letter from Samuel S. Knoles of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, asking that the law make provision to restrict unleashed dogs in public parks and on Marin Municipal Water District's watershed.

SHOOT DOGS

The board also heard from Game Warden Al Giddings and Inspector Ellis Berry of the State Department of Fish and Game. Both said the agricultural code makes it permissible, without civil liability, for farmers to shoot dogs that are damaging livestock. But, they said, there is nothing in the state fish and game laws permitting game wardens to kill dogs chasing and killing deer or other wild life.

Giddings estimated that dogs kill about 1,000 deer a year in Marin County.

Police Science Course Planned

A new police science course planned to begin at College of Marin next fall will meet requirements of state peace officer training standards, Dr. Frank T. Jacobs, assistant dean of vocational and technical education, announced today.

All police chiefs attending a meeting of law officers voted unanimously for the standards, said Jacobs. Others attending included Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety, Capt. T. F. Parnow, head of the Marin California Highway Patrol office, and representatives from San Quenin Prison.

The new course will provide young men with two years of police science training, enabling them to qualify for law enforcement positions in Marin.

Exec Training Due Marinites

Three graduates of the College of Marin retailing program have been selected for executive training with San Francisco department stores, according to Mary L. Sullivan, retailing instructor.

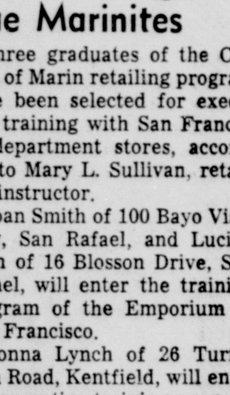

Joan Smith of 100 Bayo Vista Way, San Rafael, and Lucille Ryan of 16 Blosson Drive, San Rafael, will enter the training program of the Emporium in San Francisco.

Donna Lynch of 26 Turnagain Road, Kentfield, will enter the executive training program at the Joseph Magnin store in San Francisco, all in February.

I-J Credit Union

Annual meeting of the Independent-Journal Federal Credit Union will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Room 312 of the Independent-Journal building, 1040 B Street, San Rafael.

VAN TILBURG CLARK
Former Marin resident

Author Of 'Ox Bow' Back At Writing

RENO (AP)—Walter Van Tilburg Clark's eyes probed the barren, brown January hills east of modern Reno's emerging skyline and reflected:

On modern writing—"I think there are more good novels and stories published today than there ever have been in this country. But it's harder for a new writer to get an important start."

On teaching—"I find that teaching to all intents stopped my imaginative writing. I was too constantly in a critical frame of mind teaching fiction and poetry. But I love teaching."

BORN IN MAINE

Clark, a one-time resident of Mill Valley, was born in East Orland, Me., most of his 54 years have been spent in the west that was the setting for his novels, "The Ox Bow Incident" and "Track of the Cat," both later made into motion pictures.

"Track of the Cat," published in 1949, was Clark's last major work on fiction. Most of the time since has been spent teaching a new generation of writers.

Eighteen months ago, he left the classroom and writing workshops to compile a chronicle of frontier life, based on the 79 leather-bound journals written over nearly 55 years by Alfred Doten, an obscure miner and journalist. Clark still is busy on the project.

HILLTOP HOUSE

Clark and his wife and their two dogs live in a hilltop house on four acres west of Reno.

Clark gazes through a picture window to the Nevada hills and talks about the young writers.

Their studies under experienced authors in graduate schools and workshops has improved technique. "The quality and knowingness of writing now is superior to any other period."

But, Clark notes, the modern writer seems less able to develop unique subject material.

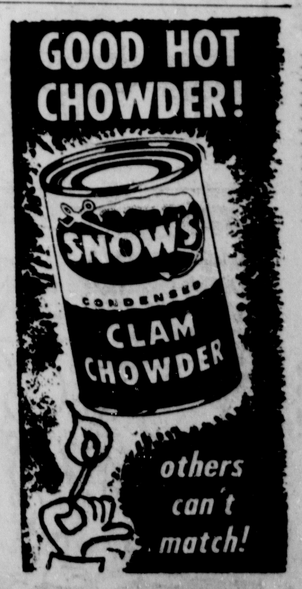

"I find more nearly uniform attitudes than I like. But there really is less differentation of experience in these days. The subject that really interests and takes hold is rarer."

Lions Meeting At Tomahawk

The first district cabinet meeting of Lions International in Novato since the local club was organized 20 years ago will be held at the Tomahawk Lodge Feb. 15 and 16.

Deputy Dist. Gov. Jack Lepinski, a member of the Novato club, reported that about 200 Lions club members and wives will attend.

The Independent - Journal last Friday erroneously listed the meeting place as the "Novato clubhouse."

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 29, the 29th day of 1964 with 337 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The evening stars are Venus and Jupiter.

Those born today include William McKinley, the 25th president of the United States, in 1843.

On this day in history:

In 1861, Kansas entered the union as the 34th state.

In 1900, Baseball's American League was organized at Philadelphia.

In 1962, the American violinist and composer of some 200 works, Fritz Kreisler, died in New York City at the age of 86.

In 1963, French President Charles de Gaulle killed Britain's bid to join the European Common Market.

A thought for the day—Britain's Sir Winston Churchill once said: "Dictators ride to and fro upon tigers which they dare not dismount. And the tigers are getting hungry."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

'Nuisance Overcall' Misleads Declarer In Today's Hand

A "nuisance overcall" has a certain value against players who believe what they hear instead of what they can see.

I'm not suggesting that you overcall on any sort of cheesy hand; I just recommend that you pick the right sort of foolish opponent to do it against.

Declarer played a low heart from dummy at the first trick, and East took the king of hearts and returned the suit.

DUMMY ACE

South cashed dummy's ace of diamonds and then led a low diamond from dummy, playing the nine from his hand.

This was a fine play. If West took the trick, South would later take a diamond finesse to get four tricks in the suit. As it happened, West saw the danger and allowed South to win the trick with the nine of diamonds. This limited South to three diamond tricks.

South felt sure that East had the king of spades for his overcall. Hence declarer led a diamond to dummy and returned a spade to finesse with the queen.

HOPES DASHED

South's hopes were dashed when West won with the king of spades. West cashed his diamond and got out with a spade. Now South had only eight tricks.

The contract was cold if South relied on nothing but what he could see in front of his nose.

After winning the second diamond trick with the nine, South should cash the queen of hearts, lead a diamond to dummy's king, and return a diamond to throw West into the lead.

RED CARDS

At this stage West would be out of red cards. Whether West returned a spade or a club, declarer would get a free finesse for his ninth trick.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

28 EDITORIAL PAGE Wed., Jan. 29, 1964 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

We Need To Make A Start Toward Saving Landmarks

Suggestions that the county supervisors enact an ordinance aimed at preserving Marin historical landmarks from destruction are laudable.

But the process of saving the landmarks is not so simple as it sounds.

The problem is that almost nobody, including county officials who presumably would be responsible for safeguarding the landmarks, knows what Marin's historical landmarks are.

Frank Galli of the Marin County Historical Society sent a letter to the supervisors last week with a new slant. He suggested an ordinance requiring governmental agencies to notify the society whenever a landmark is threatened.

He mentioned the last of the Mission pear trees, knocked down by a bulldozer to make way for a driveway recently. And he mentioned the railroad depot at Ignacio, a classic structure of its type, razed recently.

We suspect that had the ordinance Galli suggests been on the books, neither of these items would have been saved.

In the first place, you aren't now required to notify any government agency before you take out a tree or knock down an old building, except under some rather infrequent circumstances.

In the next place, if the planning department or building inspection department were notified, it is doubtful they would be aware that the old pear tree or the old railroad station had any historical significance.

So we doubt the ordinance would produce the intended, desired results.

It seems to us that it is necessary first to develop a list of historical landmarks, relics, historic sites, etc. We need to describe them, locate them and record their historical or other significance.

Perhaps each of these items and sites should be appropriately marked.

When this is done, an ordinance prohibiting their destruction or even change or interference (in the case of a living tree) could be enacted and effectively enforced.

Several weeks ago Richard E. Persoff of Corte Madera wrote a letter to the editor on this subject; it was printed on this page. His suggestions along these lines deserve full consideration.

We think this matter of marking and preserving buildings and sites of historic or other special significance deserves attention by the supervisors.

Perhaps a committee comprised of representatives of the Historical Society, the Visitors Bureau, the planning department, the building inspector's office, together with a public representative or two could devise an effective system for protecting our historic heritage.

We need to make a start.

Highway, Park Commissions Agree To Meet On Disputes Over Roads

By CAPITOL NEWS SERVICE

SACRAMENTO—The California highway commission and state park commission have agreed to hold joint meetings in the future to discuss at least a dozen areas where proposed freeway or highway construction is creating conflicts with park operations or preservation.

Alfred J. Stern, park commission chairman who presided over a joint meeting of the two bodies, said the first four areas he felt needed such meetings were the Prairie Creek state park in Humboldt and Del Norte counties; Calaveras Big Trees, in Calaveras and Tuolumne counties; Richardson Grove, Humboldt county; and Emerald Bay, El Dorado county.

In a meeting which could have resulted in the tossing of brickbats at one another by the two commissions, on the basis of past disagreements over freeways vs. trees, the only exchanges were marshmallows at safe distances.

CHARLES A. DETURK, director of parks and recreation, and Edward F. Dolder, chief of the division of beaches and parks, presented prepared statements pointing out that park experts were the only ones qualified to determine what damage would result to a park from highway construction. They intimated this had not always been the practice in the past.

However, when J. C. Womack, state highway engineer, called for specific instances of unsatisfactory agreements in the past, Dolder named only one and that was somewhat qualified. Dolder and his staff said that, as long as a highway had to be built through the Humboldt Redwoods, the highway commission had selected the best route possible through the fringe of the trees, in largely cutover area. However, they maintained that the road should have been built entirely outside the park, "even if it had to go over in Trinity county."

Robert B. Bradford, highway transportation agency administrator and chairman of the highway commission, said it was a dangerous thing to adopt an "either or" approach.

"THE TWO commissions must agree we are going to accomplish both objectives, not either or," Bradford said. "We should have the objective to avoid irreplaceable parks and resources altogether. If we cannot avoid them altogether, we should avoid the principal core of the resources. The burden of proof is on us."

Bradford noted that, whenever the commission began a study of a highway or freeway routing in the vicinity or in a park, it advised the park commission of this.

"Now you don't advise us when you are making plans for a new park, and we invite you to do this," he said.

Both Bradford and Stern agreed there was a need for joint meetings of the two commissions on all critical areas. Before the meeting ended, in fact, both appointed two members of their respective commissions to serve on a joint committee. This included William S. Whitehurst, Fresno, and Roger S. Woolley, San Diego, from the highway commission; and Mrs. Margaret W. Owings, Carmel, and George C. Fleharty, Fresno, from the park commission.

IN ADDITION to Prairie Creek, Calaveras Big Trees, Richardson Grove, and Emerald Bay, the park commission listed eight other parks which are immediately affected by proposed highway construction: Benbow Lake, Humboldt; D. L. Bliss, El Dorado; Henry Cowell, Santa Cruz; Leo Carillo, Malibu Lagoon, Las Tunas, Santa Monica and Will Rogers Beach, all in Los Angeles county.

Shift School Costs To Children Owners

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re your article in yesterday's paper (Jan. 23) "not a yelp as dog law is praised"

Am all in favor of shifting costs to pet owners from property owners, but am wondering why this law should not apply to school costs, shifting same from property owners to children owners.

Citizens Must Rally If Trees To Be Saved

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your letter from Mr. Ernest Braun of San Anselmo was very timely. All over Marin we are being faced with City Councils to whom the beauty of a city becomes secondary to the dollar and cents value of the parking lot . . . .

In Fairfax we are faced with an even greater problem. In trying to save the three eucalyptus trees on Ridgeway Avenue against a back-scratching political domain, the signatures of 43 people living in the immediate area who want to keep the trees are being ignored in favor of three. . . .

Of the many points discussed, and setting apart the majority will of the people, two main facts emerge: (1) the city is afraid of liability; (2) because of this, they are now insisting the trees are dangerous . . . a court would take into account the fact that people knowingly purchased their homes close to city trees, but a City Council needs the support of the people before any policy can be formulated. Unless we the people who want to retain trees in the City of Fairfax come forward now and have the courage to state our views, there will be no alternative but total destruction.

We believe people who are afraid of tall trees should not buy homes close to them . . . It does not make sense that they now consider them dangerous.

It is our contention that any danger in these trees can be romoved by topping and cutting of branches . . .

Last month, the Council agreed to the destruction of two oak trees, this month they are likely to agree to the cutting down of three eucalyptus trees, how many next month and the month after? Five trees destroyed in a one month period will be quite a record for any city council. It is mass destruction spread over a period of months. We have to stop this now before it is too late. In the Carmel/Monterey area people did not awaken to the facts until too many trees had been cut. By the time they were organized, most of their trees had been destroyed. The people living in Fairfax have an opportunity to prevent this happening any further by helping us save the three eucalyptus trees on Ridgeway. We suggest you write your views to the City Councilmen and attend the next Council meeting on Feb. 10 when the issue will be decided.

Since the trees can be made safe by topping and branching, there is no need for them to be cut down.

Clem Miller Should Not Be Forgotten

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The I-J's reporting of Mr. Don Clausen's "first year appraisal" included a claim crediting the Point Reyes Seashore purchase to his efforts. In the interest of accuracy and justice, this "pre-election ploy" demands some modifi- dedicated NONPARTISAN struggle of hundreds of conservationists, and the support of many influential groups (including the I-J) prepared the groundwork and did the para-legislative labor which brought the project to the point of completion. Clem Miller's untimely death should not obliterate the memory of his crucial role in preserving this "Island of Time."

To Mr. Clausen goes the legitimate credit for resisting the pressures to further delay this monument to those who love natural beauty and seek to preserve it for those who will follow us on this earth.

Supervisors Derided For Failure To Act

Editor, Independent-Journal:

If I have it straight, the law requires regular redistricting of Marin County to keep the five supervisoral districts approximately equal in population. The law has been long ignored, so that representation has become flagrantly unequal. The heat is on our Marin supervisors to redistrict now or have it done for them from outside, but even this threat has failed to produce any action.

It is incredible that five honorable and responsible citizens who have sworn to uphold the law and govern by it for all the people of Marin County would accept this sacred obligation only to flout it. How can they, or any one of them, place any personal-political consideration above the requirements of the law? How can they, or any one of them, by inaction seek to nullify the right of every citizen to equal representation?

"My vote counts just as much as yours, but no more than yours" is the one basic principle which entitles the American republic to claim the name of democracy.

BENNETT CERF

A three-time loser was picked up by the police in a midwest town after perpetrating a daring bank robbery that had netted him over $60,000. He still had most of the loot in his hideaway when the cops caught up with him. He also made an interesting disclosure when he was questioned. Just before he had run out of the bank, the head teller had motioned him to come closer, and whispered, "Do me a big favor. Take my books, too!"

De Gaulle Acting From Conviction, No Perversity, Regarding Chinese

WASHINGTON — When Gen. Charles de Gaulle is on your side, he is with you all the way — a very stout ally indeed.

During the Cuban missile crisis de Gaulle gave his open and immediate support to the U. S. action. When President John F. Kennedy's special envoy, Dean Acheson, informed him what the United States intended to do, the general replied, "You are right. I would have done the same thing."

The special significance of de Gaulle's response is that he did not wait, as did some of our other "allies," to find out how the confrontation was going to go before committing himself to our side. He committed himself in advance of knowing whether it would be peace or war.

Now de Gaulle is recognizing Red China. He is setting out on a different strategy from that of the United States. It is his belief that a negotiated neutralization of Southeast Asia can be arranged and would arrest Communist expansion.

MOST AMERICANS, as does this correspondent, disagree deeply with what de Gaulle is doing. But it is only fair to set out his reasoning and to recognize that he is acting from conviction, not from perversity.

His strongest and most objective argument is that, because of the breach between Red China and the Soviet Union, it is necessary for the West to have diplomatic relations with both capitals of the Communist world. Example: at a recent session of the U.N. the Soviet delegate undertook to speak for Red China on an important matter and was flatly contradicted by Peking the next day.

Just as de Gaulle feels he is doing no more than recognizing the reality of Communist control of mainland China, he intends to continue to recognize the reality of Nationalist China's control of Formosa. He does not propose to break relations with Chinag Kai-shek.

He stresses that recognition of Red China does not mean approval.

Finally, it is de Gaulle's long-range hope that the reentry of the French presence in the Pacific could promote a negotiated settlement which would save Southeast Asia from being further over-run by the Communists.

I QUESTION THESE arguments at two central points—the timing and the reliability of a policy of neutralization.

The French did not recognize Red China when they were fighting the Communists in Indo-China. It seems ill-timed for them to recognize Peking when the U. S. is fighting the Communists to secure the independence of what remains of Indo-China—that is, South Vietnam.

The case for recognizing Red China was stronger 14 years ago than it is today—after Red Cihna's record of abetting the aggression against South Korea, remaining at war with the U.N. by refusing to accept a Korean peace treaty, swallowing up Tibet and overrunning thousands of square miles of Indian territory.

Since the Sino-Soviet breach, Red China has been increasingly blatant in calling for "wars of liberation" from non-Communist hands and de Gaulle's recognition can hardly fail to weaken the resistance to Communist take-over in Southeast Asia.

Obviously that is not his intention. He hopes that the Asian Communists will call off their "liberation wars" in favor of neutralization. But I see no evidence that the Communists have ever accepted neutralization as more than a truce, a pause before pressing ahead for total Communist control.

Canada Sales To Cuba Loosens U.S. Boycott

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

In addition to those British-French-Spanish sales to Castro, Canada is shipping both wheat and flour to Cuba despite Secretary Dean Rusk's warning that this trade is harming Western Hemisphere defenses against Communism.

To add insult to injury, the Canadian exports are being paid for in cash by the Russians, who are asking for U.S. credits to pay for their huge grain purchases here.

These shipments, which are helping Castro solve his severe food shortages, include 240,000 long tons of wheat and 150,000 long tons of flour. The sales are being handled under the 500 million dollar Canadian-Russian grain agreement signed on Sept. 16, 1963.

WHILE THE FLOUR is being shipped directly to Havana aboard Iron Curtain vessels from Canadian East Coast ports, U.S. Naval Intelligence experts suspect that at least some of the wheat is being exported to Cuba from U.S. ports.

Their preliminary investigation shows that part of the Canadian wheat purchased by the Soviet has been going by rail to Boston and Baltimore for overseas shipment since the St. Lawrence Seaway closed down for the winter.

At least one vessel, after loading Canadian wheat at Boston, was tracked to Cuba, although its original destination was a Russian port on the Black Sea. Whether other ships in the Canada-to-Russia grain deal are being diverted to Cuba is being probed by the Navy.

These and other startling details of Canada's growing trade with Cuba and other Communist countries was made known by U.S.-Canadian authorities during the recent meeting of the U.S.-Canadian Parliamentary Committee.

ONE CONFIDENTIAL briefing paper circulated among the U.S.-Canadian legislators frankly reported that "The Canadian government believes consideration should be given to increasing trade with all Communist countries. Large sales of wheat and flour to Russia in recent months have pointed up the potential benefits to Canada of such trade."

The document stressed that, "Although Canada has no formal trade agreement with Cuba, the government agreed with the USSR, in its wheat sale to that country, to sell for 100 per cent cash some 240,000 long tons of wheat and 150,000 tons of flour for immediate delivery to Cuba."

It also revealed that Canada doesn't consider its grain sales to Russia and China one-shot deals, stating:

"The Soviet-Canadian wheat agreement is to run until April 17, 1966, and provides Soviet purchase of 5.3 million long tons of wheat and 576,000 long tons of flour to be shipped by Canada by July 31, 1964.

"Specific purchases for the second year of the agreement are now being worked out and may include new shipments to Cuba. The USSR agreed to purchase 500,000 long tons of wheat or flour in the third year of the agreement."

Novato Has Police Chief Who Isn't Chief Because Of Council Action

As this is written, the City of Novato is in the position of having a police chief who is not a police chief.

This comes about because the Novato City Council (not unlike some others) doesn't always like to abide by the laws it passes. It had an ordinance giving the city administrator the authority to appoint department heads, subject to city council approval. But when the administrator followed examination procedures authorized by the council, he found three council men would not approve his choice for chief. They wanted Sgt. Robert Di Grazia, who has a good record on the Novato police force ever since its organization—but who did not pass the exam.

SO DI GRAZIA remains "acting chief" — as he has been since last Nov. 1. But the council raised his pay to police chief's scale of $820. per month. Since it is extremely unlikely the council would authorize equal pay for a second chief, Di Grazia seems to have the job without the title.

Sausalito also has an acting police chief, and has had since last October, but he is getting only sergeant's pay. To add a fillip to the Sausalito situation, former Chief Howard Goerndt is working as sergeant under Acting Chief David Cooper, who used to be sergeant under Goerndt.

It isn't only in police departments that filling top spots seems to give trouble to Marin's governing bodies. Some school districts have the same problem.

MRS MILDRED Barnard quit last May as assistant superintendent for elementary schools in the San Rafael school system. The job is still unfilled.

Before Mrs. Barnard quit, the San Rafael Board of Education had decided growth of the school system called for two assistant superintendents—one for the elementary school district and one for the high school district. Mitchell L. Voydat was hired in June as San Rafael's first assistant superintendent for high schools. He has not been designated "acting assistant superintendent for elementary schools" but has been working with both elementary and high school districts while the other post goes unfilled.

In July, Gary Dunn resigned as assistant principal of San Rafael High School. The board, after several closed sessions on appointment of a successor, reported it could find no one in the San Rafael school system to be assistant high school principal. So Principal Alfred N. Thomson still has no assistant, with the school year half gone.

QUESTION: If the schools can run along without the jobs being filled, are the positions necessary?

On the other hand, if the positions are necessary, it it fair to staff and students to leave them unfilled?

No such problem of filling positions seems to exist in Tamalpais High School District. The board there last Monday night named Raymond Bell to become vice principal of Tamalpais High School when Charles C. Crawford, who now has the job, leaves at the end of the school year in June.

Apparently, there is no shortage of qualified personnel for assistant principalships in the Tam district. Why the difference?

Make Poor Man Honorary Secretary Of The Majority To End Poverty

WASHINGTON—We have been very interested in President Lyndon B. Johnson's "war on poverty." There are a lot of ways of fighting this war and we've been giving it a lot of thought.

As usual we think we have the answer.

Our solution is quite simple and we're sure economists throughout the country are going to be kicking themselves because they hadn't thought of it first.

Here is what we propose to do.

WE PROPOSE that anyone who is on relief or unemployed for more than 30 days be automatically given the title of Honorary Secretary for the Majority of the Senate. The reason the title would be honorary is you wouldn't want to have too many people hanging around the Capitol.

The great thing about our plan is that it wouldn't cost the American taxpayer any money.

As soon as the unemployed person got the title, he would be contacted by people in private enterprise. Vending machine operators would offer him stock in their companies, banks would be willing to lend him large sums of money without collateral, insurance companies would fight to make him an officer, and people all over the country would offer him large sums of cash.

Florida senators would make land investments for him, insurance brokers would give him stereo sets, he would be let into lucrative motel deals.

LAS VEGAS gamblers would finance him in gambling casinor, and places like Haiti would offer to sell their coffee through his offices.

Once he had the title, lobbyists would do everything to make him forget his poverty. They would arrange parties for him, pick up hotel and transportation bills, and take care of his needs, whatever they might be.

As honorary secretary for the majority, the poor person would be able to see any senator at any time and arrange legislation beneficial to him. He would also be instrumental in making committee appointments and socially he would be sought after by the most distinguished hostesses in the country.

In less than a year the poor person will have accumulated enough money to be taken off the relief rolls forever, and will never have to worry about being unemployed again.

Now what are the flaws in the plan?

EVENTUALLY someone is going to become jealous of the secretary and sue him for restraint of trade or some such silly thing. Let us take a hypothetical example. Suppose one vending company sues an honorary secretary because he has arranged to have their machines taken out of several defense factories. The solution is quite simple. He settles out of court for whatever the vending company demands. Otherwise he will invite a Senate investigation which really isn't worth all the trouble.

A slush fund could be available for just such a contingency.

Except for threat of a law suit we can't see anything wrong with the plan. And if it is adopted, we predict that the war on poverty will be over in no time. No one with the title of secretary for the majority need ever be poor—not in a great country like ours.

Number Of Babies Born In November Smallest Since '53

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Only about 327,000 babies were born in this country during November, the smallest number for any November since 1953, the Public Health Service reported yesterday.

The total was about 10,000 below the November, 1962 figure.

The birth rate dropped to 21 live births per 1,000 population, down from 22 a year earlier.

This continued a downward trend that has persisted about two and one-half years.

Health Service spokesmen expect the number of births to turn upward in the next couple of years, as persons who were born in 1946 and 1947 marry and become parents in increasing numbers. The number of births began to increase rapidly in 1946.

LEAP YEAR STATISTICS

It's Open Season For Man Hunting—

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

Approximately 1.6 million persons will marry this year. Will one be you?

Although nine out of ten persons marry before aged 32, the most popular marrying age for women is 23. If you are a singleton between 23 or 24, you have one chance in five of catching a man this year.

At aged 30 you have a fifty-fifty opportunity but if you are more than 40, you have only one chance in five.

THREE-FOURTHS of all divorced persons remarry within five years. The same holds true for widows in the 30 to 40 age group, but their chances drop sharply with each passing decade—much more so than for divorced women.

While the average marrying age is 22 for men (and 20 for women) the largest number of men pop the question between the ages of 26 and 27. If he is between 25 and 28, there is better than one chance in six that he will tie the marital knot with some lass within the year. (Let it be you.)

On the other hand, if he is over 30, there is less than three chances in four he will go the marriage route. And if he is over 40 you have a slim one chance in three of hooking him. (So ask him how old he is.)

WHETHER YOU ARE the lucky statistic who elbows out the competition hinges to a large extent on your being where the boys are — and that's not necessarily Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Nearly one-third of America's as yet unincumbered males seem to flock to the big cities in the states of New York, California, Pennsylvania and Illinois. Each state has a million and more stags within its boundaries. Unfortunately a similar proportion of unmarried women wisely aggregate in these areas, too. However, wife material is in short supply in the Western states, and Hawaii and Alaska. (Please note that Alaska has four unmarried males to every unmarried female.)

EXPERIENCED MAN-HUNTERS steer clear of big cities, Washington, Miami and Los Angeles, where because of the dearth of escorts, few men are too young or too old, or too ugly. The shrewd female also avoids small towns where the turnover is never and fresh stock seldom.

The woman with no other career in mind than wifery chooses her preliminary occupation with care. She bears in mind that airline hostesses, nurses and office workers, waitresses nearly always get their man. School teachers cut themselves off from the supply line.

Jobholders, such as beauty operators, servicing females only, must count on after hours contacts to meet men.

Since you can't join the Army or Navy without being cloistered with your own sex, you might try something like being a coffee girl in a coal mine.

Brass Buttons And Feline Bows Are Balmain's Latest Touches

By ALINE MOSBY

PARIS (UPI)—Bows and brass buttons were the new touches contributed by designer Pierre Balmain on the second day of the Paris spring fashion showings.

Balmain did not start any trends or try any changes, such as following the current theme of waists cinched with belts and low-cut necklines.

FRESH ADDITIONS included brass buttons on many coats. A straight hip-length jacket of luxurious white ermine had two rows of brass buttons the size of a dollar.

The model slung this jacket casually over a figure-clinging tomato red jersey floor-length sheath dress with a lady-like scooped neckline.

FLOPPY "PUSSY CAT" bows appeared on several outfits. For example a suit checked in pumpkin orange and gray had a gray chiffon blouse with a huge bow that covered the chest.

He showed both figure-fitting coats with narrow collars and pockets and squarish wider coats with wide sleeves, collarless or with small stand-up collars.

His coat and suit fabrics were tweeds and checks in breathtaking color combinations: turquoise and deep blue; emerald green and turquoise; coral and pumpkin.

BALMAIN'S AFTERNOON dresses were slim sheaths of wool or linen, loose in the waist, not one bared the entire arm.

It All Started With An Old Family Recipe—

By DOROTHY NEWELL

It was an old family candy recipe that gave Mrs. Frank Cammack of Novato the inspiration to go into business for herself, but before she launched her enterprise, she learned a lot about red tape in government.

Last October, Mrs. Cammack went down to Novato City Hall to apply for a city license to conduct a candy business at her home.

"I thought I could pay a $1 fee and start my business, but this was not the case," she said.

"I WAS TOLD I could not conduct the business, but they should never say 'no' to a woman. I felt I was entitled to do it," said Mrs. Cammack.

She was told she would have to go before the planning commission, as a business of this type had never been conducted in a residential area in Novato. And she also had to have the approval of the Marin County Health Department.

"I thought I would have a charming little Colonial candy store in my home but this was not allowed even with the approval of the neighbors," she added.

After several trips to city hall, and discussions with the planning commission and a trip to the city council, Mrs. Cammack now will be able to conduct a wholesale, not retail, candy business from her home.

THE CANDY BUSINESS is not new to Mary Lee and she will specialize in a creative and custom type candy mint.

Mary Lee's father, who is semi-retired, has been in the candy making business for 40 years in Bellefontaine, Ohio.

"I grew up with the business and worked in the candy shop during my high school years. The mints that I make are from a secret recipe handed down in our family, and I hope to sell to a select type of clientele," Mary Lee said.

The mints are made of regular granulated sugar purchased at any grocery store. A very smooth confection, the mints are molded in rubber forms. Only five pounds of the custom made mints are processed at one time. Twenty-five different forms and also seasonal molds for the different holidays will be featured.

MARY LEE'S HUSBAND, who is a technical engineer with the Ford Co. at Hamilton Air Force Base, travels a great deal throughout the Pacific, and Mary Lee found a lot of time on her hands while her husband was away, even with the care of their 1-year-old daughter, Sara Franke, who was born in Novato.

"I told my husband that it would cost me approximately $25 to $50 to start my business, but by the time I add needed equipment, my venture will cost nearly $1,000," Mrs. Cammack said.

THE BUSINESS WORLD is not new to Mary Lee. Prior to coming to Marin County two years ago, she was assistant manager for a branch store in New York of Franklin Simon.

"I certainly caught up on civic matters when I decided to go into business," Mrs. Cammack said, "and I hope my business will grow with Novato."

'DO TRY A MINT,' says Mrs. Frank Cammack of Novato, one of the newest business women in Novato, now that she is beginning a wholesale candy business in her home, where custom mints will be the specialty.

Lady Bird Books Headed For Market

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A rash of books on Lady Bird Johnson is about to hit the market. At least three biographical tomes are in the works, plus perhaps four others on the woman who became the First Lady two months ago.

There is hot competition to see which publisher will get its book out first.

The authors, all newswomen, hit the typewriters even before Mrs. Johnson got settled in the White House. The reporters all have known her for years on the Washington scene.

Mrs. Johnson has seen an advance copy of one of the books already and is said to think that her image may be "too good." She is afraid the output may be too syrupy. But the President's wife is wise in the ways of Washington which can be saccharine one moment and down on you the next.

School Music Report Given In Mill Valley

Music education from kindergarten through the eighth grade, with four added teachers and special rooms, is envisioned for the Mill Valley School District over a long-range period, district trustees were told Monday night.

Tod Fleming, district music director, told of the aims of the music program in a report he presented with music instructors Lenore Irish and Donovan Stahl.

The music program now has three instructors in fifth through eighth grades and some instruction in stringed instruments for fourth graders.

The Mill Valley School District board also:

1. Authorized calling bids for repairing the heating system at Strawberry Point School and painting Old Mill School auditorium.

2. Tabled a proposal that the district participate in the operation of a mobile unit to test students' hearing.

3. Continued to Feb. 24 discussion of a proposed 20-day summer session program to begin June 22, with Asst. Supt. Logan T. Miles as principal.

4. Accepted the resignation of Mrs. John Boccabella, Marin Terrace second grade teacher, who will accompany her husband to Arizona, and hired Mrs. Kenneth C. Lesikar of San Anselmo to fill the vacancy.

5. Appointed Mrs. Charles Guichard, Dr. William Hargreaves, Joe L. De Smet, Dr. Alan Goldfien and William L. Clark, board chairman, as a committee for an intensive study of classroom needs.

AND MARRIED HER

He Stole Friend's Girl 50 Years Ago

Fifty years ago a friend leaving California for a short spell asked A. W. (Bill) Mason to take care of his girl friend while he was gone.

Mason and the "girl friend," now Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason of 10 West Street, San Rafael, celebrated their golden wedding last week.

"He said take care of my girl and I'm still taking care of his girl," Mason said.

Mason was living in Barstow Colony, 12 miles west of Fresno, when his friend took him to a dance and introduced him to everyone there except his girl friend.

"When I saw her, I said, 'that's mine'," Mason said.

Mrs. Mason, a native of North Dakota, was living with her brother, who was a rancher.

When her boy friend went to North Dakota about two months later to work for her other brothers during the wheat harvest, Mason took over. He got his friend's job driving a milk wagon, and eventually he got the girl, too.

Within a year they were married. The marriage ceremonies were in Fresno Jan. 21, 1914.

Mason, a retired grocery operator, and his wife, Mary, have lived in Marin County for 33 years.

Fifty-three friends and relatives honored the couple at a champagne party and buffet dinner Saturday at the home of a son, Lloyd E. Mason, 507 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia.

Mexican To Get His Guide Dog

Antonio Nario Aldana, law student from Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, will graduate Saturday from the school of Guide Dogs for the Blind, in Los Ranchitos.

With his diploma he will receive a Labrador retriever dog. The student, also employed by a Guadalajara branch of a soft drink firm, was urged by employers to train with a guide dog as incentive to other blind Mexican residents.

He is expected to receive his law degree this year from the Universidad Autonoma in Mexico.
